Weir-McGill Wedding Party Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. J. Byron Keeter were hosts last Tuesday night at a cake-cutting which followed the marriage rehearsal of Miss Martha Frances McGill and Billy Weir.

Mixed flowers of green and white in keeping with the bridal motif observed in all the appointments were used to enhance the beauty of the spacious home.

A white cloth of Madeira linen and lace cutwork covered the dining table which held the beautiful cake on top of which was placed a tiny bridal couple. Slender satin streamers attached to symbols in the cake were trailed gracefully to the edge of the table. Grouped around the cake were silver candelabra holding burning white tapers and silver salvers filled with green and white mints. On the buffet was a pretty arrangement of white gladioli and feverfew in a silver bowl flanked by white candles in silver holders.

Those assisting the hosts were their daughters, Mrs. D. F. Hord and Miss Jo Keeter, Mrs. Paul McGinnis, Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. James Roberts, Miss Annie Mae Ware and Miss Pinky Randall.

There were fifty guests present including the bridal party, members of the two families and intimate friends.
