Patterson Grove News and Comments

By Mrs. Thurman Scism

How are you spending your time? Is it in much needed prayer? Are you concerned with those around you? Or do you shrug your shoulders and say I don't care? Is your mind, your hands, your heart, kept busy by all the good things you do? Or do you become so over-confident that you slip in a bad one or two? How do you feel about your neighbor? Are you so much better than they? Could you answer this question truthfully if God should ask you today? Do you spend your time in gossip, tearing to shreds somebody's very soul, can't you see any good in anyone? Or has conceit blinded you as glittering gold. Do you spend your time in bragging about what you might, or could have done? Do you fool your self in thinking that you are the only good one?

The Bible plainly tells us, to those who have read, I'm no respecter of person, God has plainly said. Until the day that God sees fit to reward you for what you've been or seemed keep your house in good condition, He will provide your wings.
