Pretty Party Honors Miss Sara Herndon

Miss Sara Herndon, whose wedding will be a social event of next week, was charmingly honored at a pretty bridge party given Tuesday night by Mrs. J. C. Heddon and Mrs. R. M. Snow at the home of the latter.

The playing rooms were tastefully decorated with pleasing arrangements of chrysanthemums, zinnias, and other fall flowers in harmonizing hues. Miss Herndon's place at head table was marked with a pretty nosegay.

Score prizes were won by Mrs. Paul Neisler, jr., and Miss Herndon and the hostesses presented Miss Herndon a trousseau gift of linen.

A delectable salad course was served after the games.

Those playing were Miss Herndon, Misses Mary Ann James, Nancy Nickels, Leone Patterson, Helen Ramsey Irene Allen, Mary Frances Gantt and Mary Evelyn Goforth and Mesdames Garrison Goforth, George Houser, Philip Padgett, M. A. Ware, P. D. Herndon, W. K. Mauney, jr., Allen Herndon, Charles T. Carpenter, Jr., W. B. Simpson, P. M. Neisler, jr., W. K. Mauney and O. W. Myers.

Bobby Edens Proves That Men Can Cook

Bobby Edens, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Edens, has joined the ranks of males who are certain that women aren't the only good cooks.

Monday night while Mr. and Mrs. Edens were away from home for a while Bobby made a chocolate layer birthday cake for his mother which aside from being a beautiful creation, was reported to be a culinary masterpiece.

Although Bobby likes to help in the kitchen, this was his first attempt at a cake and "beginners luck" or not, it was definitely a huge success.

Senior Club Plans Benefit Card Party

Members of the Senior Woman's Club have announced plans for a benefit card party which will be held at the clubhouse Thursday night, October 9, at 8 o'clock.

Tables will be arranged for both bridge and rook and both women and men are extended an invitation to play. Prizes for winners at both games will be given and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of play.

Tickets, fifty cents each, may be obtained from any club member. It has been asked that those expecting to attend notify either Mrs. Grady Patterson, Mrs. Carl Davidson or Mrs. J. H. Arthur by Wednesday, October 8 so that adequate seating arrangement may be made.

The proceeds from the party, as are all funds raised by the Senior Woman's Club, will be used for a worthy cause and it is hoped by the members that the club house will be filled to capacity next Thursday.

Miss Annie Ervin Feted At Shower

Miss Annie Jewell Ervin, bride-elect of October 26, was paid a delightful social courtesy last Friday evening when Mrs. John T. Hamrick entertained in her honor at a dinner party at the Hamrick home on West Washington avenue in Bessemer City.

The party rooms, thrown ensuite for the occasion, were beautifully decorated. Gladioli, dahlias and roses in pastel shades were used in the living room. In the dining room the central decoration was the table, which was covered with an exquisite handmade lace cloth and centered with a picturesque arrangement of white gladioli and feather fern. Crystal candelabra holding burning tapers were at each end of the table.

Dinner was served by candlelight at small tables which were centered with crystal candelabra with shallow bases filled with white gladioli and fern. Place markers were dainty china dolls dressed as bridal attendants in pastel shaded net. The marker at Miss Ervin's place was a miniature bride in traditional bridal attire. The hostess presented the attractive bride-elect a corsage of red rosebuds which she wore at the shoulder of her smart fuchsia-trimmed black dress. Mrs. Hamrick was assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Sara Lee Hamrick.

After dinner, several games of Bride's Dice were played with prizes going to Mrs. Jack Anette and Mrs. Robert McDaniel.

At the conclusion of the games, Miss Ervin was presented a shower of miscellaneous gifts from the hostess and other guests.

Those present besides the honoree were Mesdames Robert McDaniel, Jack Arnette, Hubert Davidson, Craig Falls, Grady McCarter, Clyde Kerns, S. S. Weil, jr. and Merle Beaty and Misses Pashia Wright, Dovie Ervin and Wanda Davis, all from Kings Mountain and Mesdames Bob Kincaid and Bill Kincaid of Bessemer City.

Miss Costner Bride Of James Champion

Miss Dorothy Louise Costner, daughter of Mrs. M. A. Costner and the late Mr. Costner, and James Sylvester Champion, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Champion of Waco were united in marriage in Gaffney, S. C., September 25.

The bride wore an aqua gabardine dress and used black accessories. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Champion was graduated from Central High school in the class of '42 and is now employed at Garland's Jewelry store.

Mr. Champion is a graduate of Waco High school and served three years in the U. S. Army, part of which time was spent in the ETO.

Immediately after the ceremony, the couple left on a wedding trip to Kansas and on their return will reside in Waco.

Visitor Honored On Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. B. A. Casey of Shreveport, La. who is visiting here in the homes of several of her relatives, was given a delightful surprise Tuesday evening when a number of her cousins showered her with gifts, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

The group had gathered at the home of Mrs. E. B. Olive for the birthday surprise and Mrs. Casey was the recipient of many lovely gifts. After they were presented, ice cream and cake was served.

Those present were Mrs. Casey, Mrs. Olive, Mrs. W. C. Putnam, Mrs. Charles Fulton, Mrs. W. R. Everhart, Mrs. Grier McDaniel, Mrs. A. L. Allran, Mrs. Fulton Everhart, Miss Winifred Fulton and Charles Fulton.
