

Inter-Communication System Installed

(By Mountaineer Staff)
Central School is very fortunate this year. It is one of the first schools in the state to have an "Inter-Communication Outfit" installed. It was installed by the School Board during the summer vacation of '47.

The "Inter-Com" was purchased from the profit made in the Student Supply Store, over a period of years. Therefore, every person making a purchase at the "Student Supply Store" helped to buy it.

The "Inter-Com" is a very delicate affair. It is possible to make announcements to the high school, play recordings to the grammar department, and let the primary grades hear the radio at the same time. It is possible to talk and receive on it. It is also possible to record anything which comes over the radio or anything that will enrich the student activity program.

It is equipped with the modern conveniences of Radio; such as A. M. (Amplitude Modulation), S. W. (Short-Wave), and F. M. (Frequency-Modulation).

The Teacher's Lounge, located on the second floor, is being converted into a studio for broadcasting.

The "Inter-Com" is being used, so far this year for announcements, and the playing of recordings during the lunch hour, and home room period. If any class wishes to hear recordings or current events, or anything which will help them understand a subject better, the teacher should discuss this with Mr. Huneycutt.

In the future, Mr. Huneycutt hopes to organize "Radio-Clubs", which will study Technique Operation, Broadcasting and Script Writing.

Italian rye grass may be grown successfully in nearly every county in the state and it remains green and continues to grow throughout the winter.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

(By Mountaineer Staff)
Four girls from the Home Economics Club and Miss Audrey May, Home Economics instructor, attended the Western District Rally of the Future Homemakers of America held at the Lee Edwards High School in Asheville on September 27, 1947.

Those attending, Jo Lynn, Louise Lindsey, Thelma Goforth, Virginia Cole and Miss May went to Shelby where all traveled by chartered bus to Asheville.

They were met at the door by pages dressed in the costumes of different nations. The Home Economics colors, red and white, were carried out in all decorations, even in the luncheon.

Contest Dates Given

(By Mountaineer Staff)

Among all the Chapel programs which are to be presented this year, the high school pupils will be interested in the "Inter-Class Contest," under the direction of Miss Cromartie.

For the benefit of all new pupils who have entered Central High this year; this is a contest in which every grade from the eight through the twelfth will have a representative for each of the five events. The highest possible score is twenty-five. The grade getting the highest score will have their grade and year engraved on a "Loving Cup" and kept by the school for the next year's
