NOVEMBER BRIDE-ELECT—Miss Jessie Frances Putnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Malcomb Putnam of Shelby who announce her engagement to Frank M. Wall, assistant manager of Harris Funeral Home here. The wedding will take place November 12 at Zion Baptist church.

Mrs. Craig Hostess At Beautiful Tea

Mrs. W. R. Craig was hostess on Thursday afternoon, October 30, at the Kings Mountain Country Club at a very beautiful tea, given to honor her aunt, Mrs. T. A. Kay of Charleston, West Virginia, who is a guest in the Craig home.

The spacious rooms of the Club were exceptionally lovely for the occasion. Yellow chrysanthemums were used in the hall and in the lounge and ivy and ferns in artistic arrangement accented the charm of the Rose room. The dining room was strikingly beautiful with the brilliant red of the candles and Nandina berries being reflected with a rosy glow in their gleaming brass holders. On the mantel, magnolia leaves and a variety of autumn fruits in magnificent colors made a decorative centerpiece.

Guests were greeted at the front door by Mrs. H. E. Lynch. At her side was Mrs. E. W. Griffin, who introduced guests to the receiving line formed in the Rose room and composed of Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Kay, Mrs. Garland Winkler, Mrs. Price Robinson of Gastonia, sister-in-law of Mrs. Craig, Mrs. William Harrison of Lowell, niece of Mrs. Craig, and Mrs. Hill Carpenter. Mrs. Harold Hunnicutt and Mrs. Halbert Webb were in the hall to direct guests to the dining room where they were received at the door by Mrs. Carl Mauney. In the dining room they were served spicy Russian tea, assorted fancy cookies and nuts by Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., Mrs. W. L. Ramseur, Mrs. W. L. Mauney and Miss Peggy Wren Craig. Miss Carlisle Ware, directed from the diningroom and goodbyes were said to Mrs. Aubrey Mauney and Mrs. James Page.

Miss Ervin Weds Jack Moss In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Annie Jewell Ervin, daughter of Mrs. Lila Ervin, became the bride of Jackson Carner Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moss of Grover in a beautiful candlelight ceremony which took place Sunday afternoon, October 26, at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. P. D. Patrick, pastor of the church, where the bride is a member, read the ritual, using the impressive double ring service. The vows were exchanged before the altar which was decorated with Oregon fern, tall floor baskets filled with white gladioli and lighted cathedral tapers in seven-branched candelabra. Pews for special guests were marked with sprays of white gladioli tied with bows of white satin ribbon.

Before the ceremony, Miss Gussie Wilson, organist of Thomaston, Ga., played "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "I Love You Truly" by Bond, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Herbert and "Liebestraum" by Liszt. Mrs. J. T. Hamrick, soloist of Bessemer City, sang "Because" by d'Hardelot. During the ceremony, Miss Wilson played "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and as a benediction, Milton Fisher, vocalist of Mt. Holly, sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin by Wagner was used as the processional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" from "A Midsummer Night's Dream," as the recessional.

Miss Ervin was escorted to the altar by her brother, John L. Ervin, who gave her in marriage. An attractive brunette, she looked unusually lovely in her wedding gown of white Burmil satin which was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, outlined with lacy seed pearl embroidery, long fitted sleeves, ending in Calla Lily points over the hands, tight bodice which featured a gathered front panel and full skirt which extended into a graceful train. Her veil of French illusion was full length with an over tier falling to her fingertips. It was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible on which was posed a white orchid showered with tuberoses and cascading ribbon streamers. Her only ornament was a cameo which belongs to her mother.

Miss Dovie Ervin was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a dress of Royal blue velvet, styled with fitted bodice having a sweetheart neckline, full skirt with a peplum and molded sleeves. Her nosegay was pink carnations tied with matching ribbon.

Mr. Moss had as his best man, his brother, Lamarr Moss, and ushers were S. S. Weir, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride, Rush E. Padgett, Jr., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Bill Cashion and Bob Early.

Miss Ruby Moss of Grover, sister of the bridegroom, kept the register.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Lila Ervin, was gowned in black with matching accessories and wore a shoulder bouquet of red rosebuds.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were the father of the bridegroom R. D. Moss of Grover, Dr. (Cont'd on page 8 First Section)
