Clippers To Play Rochester Sunday

Charlotte's Clippers, conquerors of the Pennsylvania state champions, York's Red Roses, last Sunday by a score of 54 to 8, will play the Rochester, New York, professional team at 2:30 o'clock in American Legion Memorial stadium, Charlotte, to continue their 'Mason-Dixon' battles. Charlotte was forced to book teams from the East for their games this season when Richmond Rebels pulled stakes from the Dixie pro league and entered another loop. So far the fold-up of the Dixie league this year has not hindered the size of the crowds at the Clipper games and has probably added to the number because of the higher caliber of opponents boked.

Charlotte is scheduled to meet the Rebels later in the season.

The Dixie league next year will probably be composed of teams from all over the South, including possibly Atlanta, Birmingham, Memphis, and other teams in addition to remaining teams in the Dixie league at present. Meantime this season, Bob Allen, Clipper business manager has announced that his team will play in Charlotte every Sunday through December 7.

Week Of Prayer Being Observed

This week is the Week of Prayer and Self-denial for Home Missions in the Presbyterian church. Last Sunday night there were large classes and splendid talks on Home Missions. On Monday night there were a great many families gathered for the Family Night supper. The children were together for a night of fun while the adults heard with great interest Rev. A. W. Wilkerson, pastor of Presbyterian church of Rutherfordton. The final session of the School of Missions will be Sunday night.
