Miss Curry To Wed In Sunday Ceremony

Miss Dorothy Louise Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Curry, will become the bride of Loyd Franklin Putnam, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Putnam, in a ceremony to be performed Sunday, November 23, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at Patterson Grove Baptist church.

The following invitations have been issued:

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Curry request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Dorothy Louise to

Mr. Loyd Franklin Putnam on Sunday, the twenty-third of November nineteen hundred and forty-seven at five o'clock in the afternoon Patterson Grove Baptist Church Kings Mountain, North Carolina

Mrs. Simpson Honored At Delightful Party

Mrs. James B. Simpson, recent bride, was honored at a delightful bridge party given by Mrs. M. A. Ware a few nights ago. Sharing honors with Mrs. Simpson were Miss Clara Plonk, who was soon to go to New York, and Mrs. R. T. LeGrand, Jr., of Shelby, who was observing her fifth wedding anniversary.

Colorful autumn blossoms in striking arrangements were used in the living room where five tables were set up for play. Mrs. Simpson's place at the head table was marked with crystal in her pattern, a gift from the hostess. Miss Plonk and Mrs. LeGrand were also presented handsome gifts.

After several progressions, score prizes were awarded Mrs. O. W. Myers and Miss Leone Patterson, following which Mrs. Ware served a delectable chicken salad course with pear salad accessory, mincemeat pie and coffee.

Something old, something new,
Something borrowed, something blue
... and Towle Sterling, of course ...

TRADITIONS are important, even to the youngest bride and groom. And what lovelier tradition than to begin married life with the Sterling that makes every meal a party! Even the strictest budget can afford Towle solid silver... for, despite its proud craft traditions, lovely Towle patterns are not expensive. A six-piece place setting can cost as little as $22.50 including 20% Federal Tax. Ask about the "place-setting plan" that enables you to collect your complete set of Sterling easily!
