Twenty-Two Cases Tried In Court

Twenty-two cases were tried in regular weekly session of City Recorder court held at City Hall Monday, Dec. 15, as the tenor of cases tried indicated nearness of Christmas holidays. The number of cases tried almost doubled the number of the previous week, with slightly more than two-thirds of the Dec. 15 convictions involving cases of public drunkenness. Judge O. C. O'Farrell presided.

The Dec. 15 docket brings the total for the month to 45 as compared with 58 for the same period in 1946. However, 42 of the 58 total for 1946, or almost three-fourth, were listed as public drunkenness convictions. So far this December only 27 of the 45 cases tried, sixty percent, involved public drunk charges.

The case involving Lewis Lester Baker, of Shelby, charged with driving drunk, was sent to Cleveland county Recorder court for trial by jury after attorney for the defendant, C. C. Horn, of Shelby, requested jury trial.

Jessie Jones, charged with abandonment and non-support, was sentenced two years on the roads, suspended provided he go to work and contribute properly to the support of his wife and children and pay costs of court.

Albert Hayes, of Dallas, was fined $10 and costs after conviction on charges of public drunkenness and illegal possession of one pint of non-tax paid whiskey. M. S. Calahan, of Spartanburg, S. C., forfeited a $25 appearance bond on charge of illegal possession of one pint tax-paid whiskey.

A. B. Barrett paid a $10 fine plus costs for conviction on charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

In cases involving violation of motor vehicle laws George Ivey, of Charlotte, paid $10 and costs for speeding; Albert Hugh Pridgen, of Anniston, Ala., paid $10 and costs for speeding; Lloyd Anderson Barrett, of Gastonia, paid costs for driving without a chauffeurs license; and Ira Whiteside of Clover, S. C., paid costs for driving without a drivers license.

The following paid costs for public drunkenness: Buss Beatty, Myers Lee Bud Huffstetler, Ben Seagle, Bill Beatty, Albert Bryant, Clarence Atkins, Roy Watson, Ella Good and
