(Cont'd from front page)

life with all kinds of opportunities for happiness, but we shun them."

Dr. Barr was presented by Rev. L.

C. Pinnix, a seminary classmate of

The Lions club was host club at

The delicious dinner served included turkey and all the trimmings, with pear and cheese salad,

and date-nut cake and whipcream

Tail-Twisting

Prior to the address of the evening, Lions Tail Twister Otto (Toby)

Williams kept the large crowd roaring with laughter, as he pulled stunts on members of both organiza.

tions. After Mr. Williams had named the biggest liar of the Lions club,

(Oliver Falls), of the Kiwanis club,

(B. S. Peeler), and the champion of the city, (D. L. Saunders), it developed that all three honorees were members of Central Methodist chur-

Jesse Kiser was put on the carpet

ch. It cost Rev. J. G. Winkler his tie.

the meeting, with Kiwanis President

More About

L. L. Benson presiding.

the speaker.

for dessert.

Dr. Barr Speaks

Winter Cruise For Navy embark her reservists at that port. leservists January 20

CHARLESTON. - Naval Reservwe an opportunity to take part in maid-winter cruise to tropical wates beginning January 20 aboard the USS Pecone, it was announced here today by Rear Admiral L. T. Bose, USN, District Commandant. the USS Pecono, it was announced Mierto Rico, and Guantanami, Cuba S. C., on Jan. 20 for embarkation. in the course of a cruise of over 30 mys. She is scheduled to return to Fourth, Fifth Naval District and Po-

Command. The men will receive 14 val District quota at Charleston. days active dut pay, subsistence dur ing the entire cruise and pay and travel expense during travel to and barkation points. Reservists assigned to the cruise Reserve men and 10 Naval Reserve from North and South Carolina.and officers aboard, in addition to her Georgia, the three states comprising megular Navy compliment of offi- the Sixth Naval District, will report and men, will visit San Juan, to the U. S. Naval Base, Charleston,

The Pocono will meet First, Third, vists at Norfolk, Va., January 16. The quota of 110 Naval Reservists embark Seventh Naval District Remaking the cruise will include men servists at Key West January 26; from the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Eighth and Ninth Naval Dis-Sixth, Eighth and Ninth Naval Dis- trict Reserves at New Orleans Febof the Sixth Naval District will tricts and the Potomac River Naval ruary 2, in addition to the Sixth Na-

The Reserves will have opportunity for 17 days of under way training at sea, aboard the ship in addition to from the embarkation and disem opportunities to visit southern seaport cities and liberty ashore in Puerto Rico and Cuba.

Naval Reservists in the Sixth Naval District who wish to take part in the cruise should direct their requests to the Director of Training, day. Sixth Naval District, U. S. Naval Base, S. C. , prior to January 5.

-HERALD $2.00 PER YEAR-

the Herald is deeply appreciative of the loyalty, confidence and support shown by its subscribers, patrons and the people generally during 1947.

... and we wish for each and everyone a most joyous Christmas Season and a prosperous, successful and happy 1948.

The Kings Mountain Herald

Established 1889

Martin Harmon

Charles T. Carpenter, Jr.

Mrs. C. C. Oates

Eugene Matthews

Ivan Weaver

Horace Walker

Paul Jackson

Postoffice Force Tongues Hanging

The rush at the city postoffice pyramided so much that on Friday the counting device on the cancellation machine gave up the ghost and

The result was that the cancella-tion figure was 29,000. However, Charlie Ramsey says this is in error and estimates that some 19,000 pieces went out of the local office that Overtime is the keynote at the postoffice, with all clerks, city carriers, rural carriers and six extras working until their tongues hang out. Jim Willis, the mail messenger, is looking more and more harried, as both out-going and incoming mail gets heavier and heavier.

But the mail is moving. Every piece which is placed in the box goes out the same day, according to Assistant Postmaster George

The push started on December 15. with 13,760 cancellations. Tuesday went to 17,230, Thursday was a little more at 17,410, and then it was

Sunday was a relatively light day with only 1406 cancellations up to 2:30 in the afternoon, but from the yard field goal by Jim Elvington. More About piles of mail stacked around it was and a safety. Elvington hit on both hard to imagine how more could be handled.

be handled.

points after touchdown. It was the Clippers 14th win against one loss

Total cancellations for the seven days, including the estimated count on Friday, was 94,756.

gured that yesterday would be another record-breaker.

King Thanks Jaycees For "Iron Lung" Gift

Fire Chief Grady King issued tatement yesterday in which he a portable respirator.

On behalf of the fire department, gymnasium. wish to thank the Junior Chamber of Commerce for their gift to the city of the portable respirator or 'iron

"It is the type of gift that we hope there will never be a need for. Yet, if we only have opportunity to use it once in ten years, that once may mean the saving of a life.

"The fire department is deeply grateful to the Kings Mountain Jayees for their gift."

tody of the fire department, and will it. It is used for emergency treat-ment in drownings, polio, and other respiratory allments.

BUTCH BUTLER. - Charlotte Clipper back, tallied a touchdown in the Clippers 19 to 7 victory over the for "the oil shortage," and B. S. strong Quincy, Mass., Manets Sunday afternoon in Charlotte. The ment for "too much six percent." Clips scored two touchdowns, a 24for the season.

And the postoffice employees fi- Square Dance At 8 Friday Night

Advance sale of tickets for the WOW square dance Dec. 26 honoring college students home for the holidays went on sale last week and indications are that a large gathering thanked the Junior Chamber of will turn out to "swing yo' pardner" Commerce for the gift to the city of and "drop back three." The dance gets underway at 8 p. m. in Central Hamrick music-makers, who have been playing for dances there this year, will furnish music for the affair and numbers will be called by Ray Smith and possibly others.

Tickets are on sale at Dixie-Bargain store and are priced at sixty

North Carolina is one of America's progressive states. It produces a large variety of agricultural products. The respirator will be in the cus- including peaches, pears and grapes. It produces a large amount of be available to any person needing minerals, among which are gold, sil ver and copper.

-JOB PRINTING-PHONE 283-

Neill got some tail-twisting treat-

Lutheran Service

(Cont'd from front page) Night," after which the congregation and choir will march out of the church and the benediction will be pronounced at the door of the church with the candles still lighted.

The public is invited to attend this service.

More About Christmas Story (Cont'd from front page)

the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense,

And being warned of God in α dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

Almost . Everyone Kings Mountain Reads The Herald

Once again the joyous spell of Christmas is cast over us, as we hurry about with gifts for those we love. That warm glow we get from giving at this holy season cannot be duplicated at any other time of the year. It is our sincere wish that a full measure of happiness may be yours, this Christmas of 1947.

Plonk Motor Co.

