

VA Answers Most Frequent Questions

Q—If I am receiving retirement pay, will I be permitted to get the full amount of subsistence allowance while I am attending school or while I am in job training under the GI Bill?

A—Retirement pay is not considered income from productive labor and need not be included in your estimate of earnings filed with Veterans Administration; therefore, it is not a bar to receipt of full subsistence allowance.

Q—Will Veterans Administration increase the $13.80 I get for my 10 percent World War II service-connected disability in event I marry?

A—Your compensation is based on the degree of disability. No additional compensation is payable for dependents.

Q—I am an ex-WAC with an honorable discharge and contemplating marriage to a non-veteran. Will the marriage cause me to lose any of my rights to benefits under the GI Bill?

A—No.

Q—May I be furnished a wheelchair by Veterans Administration?

A—VA will furnish you a wheelchair if you have a service-connected disability requiring the use of a wheelchair, or if a wheelchair is required for use at home upon your discharge from a period of hospital treatment or domiciliary care.

Q—I let my G-I Insurance lapse. Can I reinstate it without taking a physical examination?

A—Lapsed G-I Insurance policies may be reinstated without a physical examination in most cases if the reinstatement application is filed by July 31, 1948. On that date this liberal reinstatement provision expires. After that time, veterans whose policies have lapse more than three months will be required to take a physical examination to reinstate them.

Q—I got out of the Army a couple of years ago. How long do I have to begin a course of training or education under the G-I Bill?

A—You have four years from last July 25, the date of the official end of the war as far as certain veterans' benefits are concerned.

Q—May I reinstate part of my lapsed G. I. Insurance or do I have to reinstate the full $10,000 worth?

A—You may reinstate as little as $1,000 of your G-I insurance, or you may pick up more of this valuable protection if you wish, so long as the amount you reinstate is in multiples of $500.

Q—I had only $3,000 of G. I. Insurance while I was in service. Can I increase this amount now?

A—Yes, you may increase it to the maximum amount of $10,000.

Q—My brother, a U. S. veteran of World War II who resides in Canada would like to know if he can claim unemployment allowance while living there?

A—No, he cannot draw readjustment allowance for unemployment or self-employment while living in Canada. Residence in the United States, its territories or possessions is a definite eligibility requirement for readjustment allowance.

Q—Will you please tell me what kind of insurance is National Service Life Insurance?

A—NSLI is mutual insurance. All premium payments go into a trust fund maintained by the Treasury Department and invested in Government interest-bearing securities. The interest accrues to the NSLI fund.

The state of Missouri has more than 8,000 miles of airroad, 1927 miles of navigable waters and boasts 14,664 miles of improved state highways.

Enlisted Reservists May Serve As Escorts

RALEIGH.—Members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps in North Carolina have the opportunity to serve as military escort for the remains of World War II dead, it was announced by Col. Norman McNeill, Senior Instructor for the Organized Reserve Corps in North Carolina.

Certain qualifications are required for reservists such as: Veterans of World War II; High School graduate; Army General Classification Test of 85 or more, and have no disciplinary marks on his service record.

Applicants must volunteer for not more than 12 months no less than 6 months duration. Application being made must include the following information: Name, grade, serial number, mailing address, length of tour desired and date available, and location of escort detachment desired.

Reservists are urged to submit their applications to their Unit Instructor, or to the Senior Instructor/Organized Reserve Corps, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Seven Vice Presidents have become President by reason of presidential deaths. They are Tyler, Fillmore, Johnson, Arthur, Theodore Roosevelt, Coolidge and Truman.

To date Theodore Roosevelt is the youngest person to become President of the United States.

This custom originated with the Dutch. They used their wooden shoes instead of stockings.

When the Dutch came to New Amsterdam, this custom came with them—the wooden shoes being gradually replaced by stockings made for the occasion out of net-like materials. As nearly every home had a fireplace the usual place to hang the stockings was over the fireplace.

Meat production under Federal inspection for the week ended November 29 totaled 347 million pounds, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This was 17 per cent drop from the 421 million pounds produced during the preceding week but was 17 percent above the 296 million pounds recorded for the corresponding week of last year.

In determining the capacity of a cow to convert feed into milk she is fed all the roughage, including hay and silage, that she will eat. The grain, however, is fed in proportion to the amount of milk produced and it is necessary to make one or more trials, in order to determine the amount that she can profitably utilize.
