

Approximately one-half of the dairy cows ration is used in repairing worn out tissue and maintaining body heat and energy. This is known as the maintenance ration and for it the dairyman receives no direct return. It must be supplied, however, before the cow can perform the functions for which she is kept.

CHRISTMAS Bells by HENRY W LONGFELLOW

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And thought how, as the day had
come,
The belfries of all
Christendom
Had rolled along
The unbroken
song
Of peace on earth,
good-will to men!

Till, ringing, singing on its way,
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime,
A chant sublime
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Then from each black, accursed
mouth
The cannon thundered in the South,
And with the sound
The carols
drowned
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

It was as if an earthquake rent
The hearth-stones of a continent,
And made forlorn
The households born
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And in despair I bowed my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said,
"For hate is strong,
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead,
nor doth he
sleep!
The wrong shall
fail,
The right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Christmas Rose Has Real Significance

Legend tells us that a young shepherd girl was weeping bitterly as she watched the Wise Men on their way to take gifts to the Christ Child.

An angel appeared, and after ascertaining why the young girl was crying, she waved her wand, and instantly the ground was carpeted with glittering white Christmas roses. The young girl quickly gathered these blooms. When she presented her gift, the Christ Child smiled, and as his fingers touched the white flowers the petals became tinged with pink.

State College Hints To Farm Homemakers

To make raisins extra plump and juicy for use in fruit cup or salad rinse them in hot water.

In cakes and breads raisins spread their sweetness and flavor farther and have less tendency to sink if they are chopped. For chopping, use scissors dipped in hot water. Dust the chopped raisins with part of the sifted dry ingredients. This helps keep them buoyed up during the baking.

Once a package of raisins is opened, transfer the contents to a tightly covered jar or tin. This keeps them from drying out and becoming hard on the shelf. And in warm humid summer weather it keeps them from absorbing moisture and molding.

Seedless raisins are preferred for fruit cups, salads and many sauces, and are also widely used in baking.

When placing curtain ties, pull the window shade down to the desired height and use it for a marker to get the tie-backs even.

Snaps go on easily if you sew all the snaps on one side in their places. Then rub chalk on the snaps and press against the side where the other half must be sewed. The chalk will mark the place exactly.

Yarn raveled from a knitted or crocheted garment can be made perfectly smooth by winding it around a board, then dampening it well with water. Let it dry on the board, and it will be as straight as new knitting yarn.

To help the family detect quickly the torn or ragged handkerchiefs they don't want to use in public, fold and iron the shabby ones in a triangle instead of the usual square.

On Christmas day, 1868, President Johnson issued a pardon to all who had taken part in the secession.

WISHES
A MERRY
YULETIDE
TO ALL

Of Course you believe in Santy!...

But even if you don't right now, the chances are ten to one that at one time in your career—the short pants or long curls stage—there was no doubt in your mind that there was a Santa Claus. You not only believed in him but you were in awe of him!

Santa Claus was a short roly-poly gentleman habitually clad in red with flowing white beard. He drove through the world Christmas Eve in a heavily-laden sleigh drawn by eight dashing reindeer.

It's a beautiful old myth—as much a part of the joyous Christmas season as is our annual wish for a Merry Yuletide for you and yours!
