Churchwomen Council Sponsor Joint Study

At the First Presbyterian church on Monday, Jan. 12, the Kings Mountain Council of Churchwomen sponsored their first joint Mission Study at which sessions the book, "Committed Unto Us" by Willis Lamott was studied.

The Council was fortunate in obtaining a speaker, Mrs. T. Ansell Putnam of Greenville, S. C., Mrs. Putnam, who holds the important office of vice-president of the Women's Synodical Missionary Union of the Associated Reformed Presbyterian Church, presented the evangelistic study in a most interesting manner. She ascertained through her discussion that if the church of today is to survive, its members must discover the church within the church. The churches must unite as never before as they go forward together to face home problems as well as world problems. Today, the church is challenged through World Evangelism.

A good number attended each of the sessions.

The afternoon session began at 3 o'clock. Mrs. E. A. Shenk, president of the local Council, gave the scripture reading followed with prayer by Mrs. E. W. Griffin. The welcoming statements were said by Mrs. P. D. Patrick and Mrs. Shenk. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. W. L. Pressly.

At 6 o'clock a covered dish supper was served in the Fellowship Hall of the church, after which the evening session convened at 7 o'clock in the sanctuary.

With Mrs. Paul Mauney at the piano, Mrs. L. C. Pinnix sang "How Long Must We Wait" which opened the evening meeting.

Mrs. O. W. Myers, speaking for the Council of Churchwomen of Kings Mountain, expressed gratitude to Mrs. Putnam for her having presented so impressively the first of the Council unified studies.

Mrs. Mauney Hostess To Club Members

Mrs. D. C. Mauney was hostess at the Kings Mountain Country Club last Friday afternoon to members of the Rook club and the Social club.

The private dining room, where six tables were arranged for play, was attractively decorated with tendrils of ivy and evergreens in pretty arrangements.

At the conclusion of play, a delectable salad course, sweets and nuts was served. A guest at refreshment time was Mrs. Pearl Adair of Marietta, Ga., sister and house guest of Mrs. J. R. Davis.

Mrs. Parton Hostess To Methodist Circle

Mrs. Lynwood Parton was hostess on Tuesday evening to members and guests of circle number four of the WSCS of Central Methodist church.

Mrs. Parton, leader for the year, presided and an impressive program, "That Thy Way May Be Known Upon Earth," was presented.

New officers for the year are Miss Mary Frances Ganit, secretary, and Miss Margaret Cornwell, treasurer. Nineteen members were present and two guests, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, president of the WSCS, and Mrs. H. C. Mayes, treasurer of the WSCS.

Miss Betty Allen Is Bride Of J. C. Deveney

A wedding marked by beauty and dignity took place at the Patterson Grove Baptist church Wednesday evening January 7, at 6:30 when Miss Betty Wall Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin M. Allen, became the bride of J. C. Deveney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Deveney. Rev. J. W. Suttle, former pastor of the Patterson Grove church, performed the ceremony.

The altar, sheathed in white was decorated with ferns, pine boughs and an arch entwined with ivy. Baskets of white gladioli and several white candelabra holding lighted tapers completed the altar decorations.

Mrs. Rush Padgett of Grover was pianist and B. S. Peeler, Jr., was vocal soloist for the program of nuptial music.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. An attractive blonde, she was lovely in her wedding gown of ivory satin, which was styled with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves that came to points at the wrists. Her full skirt was made with a short train. Her circular veil of illusion was edged with lace and her flowers were white orchids carried on a white Bible.

The bride's attendants included five of her sisters: Mrs. Sam Hamrick, matron of honor, Miss Nancy Allen, maid of honor, Miss Barbara Allen and Mrs. Stanley Drake of Mount Vernon, Ohio, as bridesmaids and Frieda Allen as junior bridesmaid. She was also attended by Miss Joyce Foster and Miss Marguerite Tindle as bridesmaids, by Joyce Hoyle as junior bridesmaid, by little Kathryn Allen of Shelby and Alice Drake of Mount Vernon, Ohio, nieces, as flower girls, and by little Joyce Allen, also a niece, as ring bearer.

The bridal attendants all wore satin dresses, made on similar lines, with the matron of honor wearing peach blossom pink, the maid of honor wearing aqua, the bridesmaids and junior bridesmaids in baby blue, and the flower girls and ring bearer wearing white. The adult attendants carried nosegays of white carnations on white Bible; the flower girls carried baskets of pink flowers and wore pink flowers in their hair, and the little ring bearer wore pink flowers in her hair.

The bridegroom's brother, Stowe Deveney, served as best man and George Allen, Haywood Allen and Sam Hamrick, brother and brother-in-law of the bride, and Hubert Wells were ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for Washington, D. C., where they will make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Bethware high school and prior to her wedding was employed at the First National bank, here. The bridegroom also a graduate of Bethware high school, has been employed for some time in Washington, D. C.

Last Tuesday night after the wedding rehearsal Mr. and Mrs. Allen parents of the bride, entertained for the couple at a cake cutting at their home on the Waco road.

Senior Club Will See Travelogue Film

Members of the Senior Woman's Club have a special treat in store when they gather at the club house Friday evening at 7:30 for their meeting of the month.

A travelogue film, one of the picturesque films produced by the Standard Oil Company, "A Date with West Virginia," will be shown and Mrs. P. D. Patrick will speak on "Films and Their Influence." The program will be under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Herndon, chairman of the American Citizenship committee.

The Club members feel privileged to have the opportunity of seeing this picture which is to be shown through the courtesy of Esso Marketers and their local representative Jesse A. Kiser.

The hostess committee will be composed of Mrs. B. S. Neill, chairman, Mrs. M. L. Plonk, Mrs. E. W. Neal, Mrs. R. G. Plonk, Mrs. Clyde Kerns, Mrs. C. E. Neisler and Mrs. H. L. Campbell.

Two Central Students Inducted Into NHS

With eligibility for membership based on scholarship, leadership, character and service and an "A" average on conduct a requisite, it is not easy to gain membership in the National Honor Society. Hence, a coveted place was gained by two Central students on January 9 when they were inducted into the Society.

The two new members, Joyce Cline and Frances George, were inducted in a program held at the school. Horace Grigg, superintendent of Cleveland County schools, was the speaker, choosing for his topic, "Scholarship."

Old members taking part on the program were Jean Davis, Jean Webb, Jean McClain, Iva Jean Williamson, Beulah Rhea and Ralph Northcutt.

Central PTA Heard Recreation Director

A large group of members of the Central Parent-Teachers Association gathered Wednesday afternoon for their initial meeting of the year, at which time the speaker was Fred Grigg, recreational director of Gastonia.

Mrs. Frank Sisk, president of the PTA, presided and after a devotional service had been conducted by Mrs. W. L. Pressly, Mrs. Sisk introduced Mr. Grigg, who spoke on the needs of people in all age groups for some form of recreation. Defining recreation as "something people do because they want to do it and like to do it," Mr. Grigg offered several suggestions for community recreational projects, stating that there is a definite need in every town for recreational facilities which would provide enjoyment for all groups, whether young or old.

Miss Catherine Paysour's second grade won the parent attendance trip which is given each month to the grade having the highest percentage of parents present.

Ann Hasseltine Group Met At Roberts Home

The Ann Hasseltine Circle of the First Baptist church held its first meeting of the year on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Roberts with Mrs. E. R. Roberts as co-hostess.

Mrs. Earl Ledford, program chairman, presented an interesting program, "Enlisting Others For The Advancing Of The Kingdom." Those taking a part on the program were Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. J. C. Bridges, Mrs. W. F. McGill, Mrs. E. R. Roberts and Mrs. B. T. Wright.

A brief business session was held after the program, during which time the aim of the circle was set forth. The aim is "To Bring About The Master's Work, Seeking To Bring Others Into His Fold."

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses served pretty and tasty refreshments.

Mr. And Mrs. Ware Had Sunday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ware and Moffatt, Jr., had as their guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sayres and son, Charles, Jr., of Charlotte and Mr. and Mrs. Reese Harvelle of Gastonia.

The guests were entertained at a luncheon at the Country Club and in the evening at a delightful buffet supper at the Ware home.

JUNE BRIDE-ELECT — Miss Doris Jean Waters, above, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waters of Crumpton who have announced her engagement to Clouston Bumgardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bumgardner. The wedding is scheduled for June.
