Dr. and Mrs. Hendricks Paid Lovely Courtesy

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks, who have recently returned to Kings Mountain after an absence of several years, were paid a lovely social courtesy last night (Thursday) when Mr. and Mrs. John L. McGill entertained in their honor at a charming reception at the Country Club, which was one of the outstanding social affairs of the season.

The club was especially pretty for the delightful occasion, with beautiful floral arrangements used throughout the downstairs rooms. A color note of green and white was predominant in the main dining room, being achieved with white gladioli and chrysanthemums interspersed with lacy green foliage. In the private dining room, a red and white color scheme prevailed, brilliantly carried out with a table arrangement of red gladioli and white chrysanthemums and augmented with burning red tapers.

As guests arrived, they were greeted at the entrance by Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ware who presented them to the receiving line which was formed in the Rose room and comprised of the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. McGill, Dr. and Mrs. Hendricks, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Anthony, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Ramseur, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Padgett, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hendricks, the parents of Dr. Hendricks from Mocksville, and Mrs. J. W. Crosland, the mother of Mrs. Paul Hendricks, from Bennettsville, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Huneycutt directed guests from the Rose room into the hall where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Neisler. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Craig, in the back hall, directed to the main dining room, where Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plonk and Mr. and Mrs. John Gamble received and ice cream, cake and nuts were served by Miss Mary Frances Gantt, Miss Elizabeth Anthony, Miss Leone Patterson, Mrs. Carl Davidson and Miss Ava Ware. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page directed into the private dining room where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. George Houser and served demi-tasse and canapes with Mrs. R. N. Baird and Mrs. Lona McGill presiding at the coffee services. Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Pressly directed from this room into the lounge where goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kiser.

Three hundred guests from this and surrounding towns called between the hours of eight and ten.

Country Club Scene Of Gay Bridge Party

The Kings Mountain Country club was the scene of a gay party last Friday night when Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Fulkerson entertained at seventeen tables of bridge.

Flowering begonias and trailing ivy provided a pretty decorative note in the main dining room where the party was held.

When scores were tallied, prizes were awarded Mrs. Jacob Cooper, Mrs. Coman Falls, L. E. Abbott and Jay Patterson.

At the conclusion of play a delightful frozen dessert course with pleasing accessories was served.

Two Are Hostesses At Dessert Bridge

Mrs. W. J. Fulkerson and Mrs. Harry Page were hostesses at the Kings Mountain Country Club last Thursday night at a delightful dessert bridge party.

Eleven tables were arranged for play and the room was attractively decorated with lush pink begonias and tendrils of ivy.

When guests arrived, the hostesses served ice cream molded like a cluster of grapes, dipped cake squares, nuts and coffee.

After a number of progressions, score prizes were presented to Mrs. J. K. Willis and Mrs. H. C. Mayes.

New Circle Organized At Monday Meeting

On Monday evening a small group of women met at the home of Mrs. J. Byron Keeter, president of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, for the purpose of organizing a new night circle.

Advisors to the group were Mrs. Keeter, Mrs. L. L. Benson, Enlistment chairman of WMS, and Mrs. L. C. Pinnix, Young People's leader.

Officers elected to start the group were Mrs. R. S. Oates, leader; Mrs. Robert McDaniel, secretary; Mrs. James Roberts, treasurer, and Mrs. C. C. Oates, program chairman.

The group proved to be an enthusiastic one with high hopes of developing a progressive circle. They are making plans to enlist other members as quickly as possible, drawing their members from the women of the church who do not belong to a circle and can not attend a day circle.

During the Fellowship period, Mrs. Keeter assisted by Mrs. James Roberts, served a delicious creamed chicken, salad and dessert course.
