Council To Sponsor Clothing Collection

Plans are underway for the National Clothing Collection Campaign which will be sponsored this year in Kings Mountain by the Council of Churchwomen with the cooperation of all the churches and the business firms of the town.

Last year, the sponsoring of this campaign to obtain new and wearable used clothing for the needy peoples of Europe was the first step taken by the newly organized local unit of Churchwomen and was met by overwhelming success.

The drive starts on Sunday, Feb. 8, and during the week between that time and Feb. 15, it is hoped that everyone in town will take their gifts of new clothing or clean, wearable used clothing to the church of their choice where the articles will be sorted and packed for shipment.

Any type of clothing is acceptable—shoes, dresses, sweaters, coats, jackets, hose, underwear—anything to wear can be put to good use and is desperately needed by European families. The Council of Churchwomen think this is an excellent opportunity for all residents to do their part in relieving the suffering of those less fortunate than those of us in the United States and is looking forward to the fine response received last year.

Patsy Davis Honored At Birthday Party

Patsy Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis, was honored last Thursday, January 29, on the occasion of her twelfth birthday anniversary at a pretty party given by her mother.

The Davis home was arranged in colorful party style with a color note of pink and white predominating.

After a series of enjoyable games had been played and contests completed, prizes were awarded the winners and the guests were invited into the diningroom where a beautiful party cake, frosted in pink and white and bearing twelve lighted candles, was in the center of the table.

Ice cream, the birthday cake and a chilled beverage was served at the conclusion of the party.

Guests included Nora Jane Deese, Anne Mobley Dilling, Susan Moss, Lee Jackson, Janice Kay Allen, Gail Allen, Barbara Bennett, Peggy Davis, Patsy Goforth, Jimmy Gunnells, Ector Short, jr., Ollie Harris, jr., Dickie Croker, and Kenneth Davis. Home Arts Members Met At Ramseur Home

Members and guests of the Home Arts club met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Ramseur for their regular meeting of the month.

In keeping with the Valentine season, the Ramseur home was unusually pretty with striking arrangements of red carnations and flowering plants.

Mrs. Fred Plonk presented an entertaining program on "Hats." Mrs. Bright Ratterree and Mrs. Tolly Shuford gave amusing articles on the subject and the guests participated in a contest which was written on small Mexican sombreros. Mrs. Shuford and Mrs. Grady King scored a tie and in drawing for the prize, Mrs. Shuford was winner. The prize was a hat, an original in the strictest sense. To conclude the program, Mrs. Plonk read a novel poem.

During the business period, Mrs. George Peeler resigned her membership and two guests, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and her mother, Mrs. J. W. Crosland, were welcomed by the members.

Mrs. Ramseur served a delicious salad plate which carried out in a lovely manner, the Valentine motif.
