Mrs. Frank R. Summers, regent, was in the presiding chair and conducted the business session which embraced a number of matters of importance to the chapter. A report was heard that the clothing donated for a student at Crossnore school, along with the Christmas gifts for her, had been sent in December. A note of thanks from the veterans at Oteen hospital, expressing gratitude for the gifts sent there by the chapter was read and an encouraging report that several Junior American Citizenship clubs have been organized in the schools was given. March was designated as the month for showers to the people on Ellis Island and to Indians. A motion was accepted that a bond which has been presented to the chapter by Miss Miss Edith Hambricht in memory of her sister, Miss Mamie Hambricht, be given to the Valley Forge Memorial Association to memorialize the late Miss Hambricht.

An excellent program from the DAR magazine was presented by Mrs. C. S. Plonk. Mrs. Plonk was assisted by Mrs. F. R. Summers who read the President General's message from the magazine, and Mrs. W. T. Weir, who gave an article on "Federal Aid For Education."

After the program, Mrs. J. S. Norman, chairman of the Girl Homemakers committee, introduced four members of the Home Economics class of Central School who modeled the cotton dresses which they made and which they entered in the chapters contest. Judges chose the dress made and modeled by Joan Blalock for first place while honorable mention was given the dress of Jo Lynn. Winning first place in the chapter's contest will make Miss Blalock eligible to enter her garment in the state contest.
