

Central Cage Teams In Double Win Over Cherryville Squads

Kings Mountain Central high school basketball teams defeated teams from Cherryville high school in Central gymnasium Thursday night, Feb. 5, in a pair of Western conference games, the girls winning 34 to 23 and the boys, 41 to 24.

Mary Lou Barnette sparked the local sextet's attack, scoring 17 points to take high scoring honors. Harrison had 8 and Roberts and Floyd 4 each.

Guard Bill Amos, showing vast improvement in his floor play, sparked the Central quintet to victory, leading the scoring with 12 points and generally keeping the locals in the ball game. Center Herman Mauney hit the hoops for 10 points but contributed a sloppy brand of floor play during most of the game. However, Mauney was in on his share of rebounds from the backboards. Bud Medlin had 6 points but his shooting was very inaccurate and he missed on several "crip" shots.

SUMMARY

Guard Bob Huffstetter opened the scoring for the locals, making good on a foul shot shortly after the opening whistle. Amos made a free throw and Cherryville tied it up with a pair. Amos hit the first field goal for the locals after 3 minutes and 15 seconds of play and the locals were out front to stay. Jack Ruth sank a free throw and Amos another before Mauney and Medlin hit baskets after 7 minutes for a 10 to 4 first quarter lead.

Amos fired in two free shots 20 seconds after the second stanza began and the visitors tallied two goals and a free shot before Mauney hit again after six minutes of play in the period. Mauney sank a goal 20 second later followed by quick goals by Huffstetter and Amos and the Mountaineers held a 20 to 9 half time lead.

Ruth sank a free throw to open the scoring in the last half, Cherryville got one. Huffstetter hit a long shot, Cherryville another pair of foul shots and Mauney sank a goal after 4 minutes and 10 seconds of play. Medlin sank a free throw and Ruth hit a basket and Kings Mountain led at the end of the third quarter by 28-18.

Amos sank a goal to open the final quarter and Cherryville matched it. Medlin hit a free shot and a basket and Ruth a foul shot before Mauney hit another one after 4 minutes and 40 second of play. Amos hit another foul shot, as did Herman Jackson, reserve forward, and Bill Caldwell, reserve guard. Jackson ended the local scoring with a two-pointer.

Central Cagers Lose To Shelby

Kings Mountain Central high basketball teams dropped two close and hard-fought games to Shelby high school in the Shelby gymnasium Tuesday night in a pair of low-scoring games, the girls dropping 18 to 16 and the boys, 25 to 21.

Mary Lou Barnette led the local lassies in their fourth loss of the season, tallying a total of 9 points. Kings Mountain missed out on 14 free shots as the result of fouls and dropped a heart-breaker to the Lionesses. Shelby led at half-time by 10 to 6.

Herman Mauney paced the weak scoring Mountaineer attack in the wild, rough final affair, but his 7 points did not make up the local deficit caused by 16 foul shot misses and the Kings Mountain lads trailed at the final whistle by 4 points.

Four local field goals, 8 points, were ruled no good by the officials because of rule infractions.

Shelby led at the half by 8 to 7 and at the end of the first quarter held a slim 4 to 3 lead.

It was the first meeting of the two

Independents Win Lions Tournament

Final score was 39 to 28.

Sparked in the scoring column by Henry Neisler and Ed Hopper, the Independents stopped the Tyner attack cold during the last half with top-flight guarding by the entire squad.

Dick Weaver again sparked the Tyner attack, scoring 10 points to tie H. Neisler and Hopper for the night's honors and playing an excellent floor game. Loy Paige aided the Shelby club's efforts with 9 points and hogged the ball off the backboards.

On their journey to the finals of the tourney, Kings Mountain eliminated Firestone, of Gastonia, 44 to 40 in a thriller that was won in the
