WOW Sponsors Square Dance

Plans were announced this week for another Woodmen of the World square dance to be held Saturday night at 8 o'clock at Central gymnasium according to Denver King, local WOW official, who made the announcement.

Music will be furnished by a local band, with calling to be done by Ray Smith and others.

A large gathering of the old folk dance followers is expected, Mr. King said, with many persons coming from around Shelby and other parts of the county and the local young people should learn much about the dance from them, Mr. King said.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Breeding Animals Wanted For Veterans

RALEIGH. — The Markets Division of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture has developed a statewide program with vocational schools for the purpose of locating and purchasing good breeding animals for war veterans who will complete their training in agriculture this year and begin farming on their own.

Preliminary survey of veterans' requirements, according to Robert S. Curtis, livestock marketing specialist indicates a need for 1,500 breeding animals — beef and dairy cattle, swine and sheep. Mr. Curtis is now trying to locate a sufficient number of satisfactory animals to meet this need.

The program will get under way about March 1, Curtis said. He advised veterans wanting additional information to contact the Vocational School of Agriculture, N. C. State College, Raleigh, or the Division of Markets, North Carolina Department of Agriculture, Raleigh.

Went to Sea Early

In Scotland, on the north shore of Solway Firth, near the fishing hamlet of Arbigland, John Paul, known in history as John Paul Jones, was born July 6, 1747. When he was 12 years old, his school days were over. As a small lad he could manage his own sailing boat, and he showed a great fondness for the sea. In the summer of 1759, James Younger, a ship-owning merchant, was in Arbigland to recruit sailors, and he took the boy, a hardy, well-knit and capable lad of 12, to Whitehaven, where he shipped on a vessel about to sail to America.
