

Irish Leader Joins Crusade for Children

Beating greetings from the land of St. Patrick, Eamon de Valera, Irish leader now visiting in this country, pauses in New York to give 12-year-old Flaminia Nardi a contribution to the Crusade for Children, nation-wide campaign of American Overseas Aid-United Nations Appeal for Children to help fight starvation abroad.

Piedmont Scouters To Meet In Shelby

SHREVEPORT — Officials of Piedmont Council, Boy Scouts of America, are making extensive preparation for a get-together meeting of Council Committees and a meeting of the Executive Board of the eleven County organization here on Tuesday, March 30.

The Council Committees represent the Counties of Alexander, Caldwell, Burke, Catawba, Cleveland, Gaston, Iredell, Lincoln, McDowell, Polk, and Rutherford, will assemble in the Hoey Bible Class Room of the Central Methodist church at 6 p. m. Following the assembly, business and round table meetings of the Committees will be held and plans made for the ensuing months. At 7:25 p. m. members of the various Council Committees will meet jointly with the Executive Board of the Council at a dinner meeting at the Hotel Charles.

Piedmont Council of the Boy Scouts of America is preparing for the celebration of its 25th anniversary and to commemorate the occasion it is striving to increase its membership to 6,000 Scouts, Cubs, and Senior Scouts. The present membership is 4,494 boys and young men. Plans will also be made at the meeting for the 1943 Boy Scout training camps of the Council. The camp for white troops is at Lake Lanier and the camp for Negro Scouts is near Crowders Mountain in Gaston County. More than 2,000 Scouts and Leaders attended Piedmont Scout camp last summer, the largest number of boys accommodated in any Scout camp in the Southeastern United States.

Other routine business will be transacted and reports will be received from the eleven counties of the Council.

It Didn't Get Away

The largest fish ever caught by rod and reel weighed 2,175 pounds.

Our Timber State

About one-sixth of the total standing timber in the United States is in Washington state.

'Man of the Woods'

The arms of the orangutan—"man of the woods"—are so long that this ape can rest on its bent knuckles while standing upright.
