

HERALD PERSONALS

Call Society Editor

Phone 167

Miss Louann Herndon returned Sunday to Coker College after spending the Spring holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Herndon.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Roberts and family of Charlotte spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Littlejohn and family spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Smith at China Grove.

Miss Fanny Carpenter spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Oscar Long in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Combs, Miss Polly Putnam and Robert Ganble spent Sunday in the Western North Carolina Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Huneycutt and family spent the weekend in Tarboro.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hasty and family spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Roberts.

Miss Betty Boone and Leroy Boone of Albemarle spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carpenter.

Rev. and Mrs. P. D. Patrick and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Patrick are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patrick in Charleston, S. C., this week.

Miss Ethel Plonk of Winston-Salem and Herbert Plonk of Raleigh spent the Easter holidays with their mother, Mrs. R. S. Plonk.

Meek Carpenter has returned to Chapel Hill after spending the Spring holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Carpenter.

Dr. and Mrs. George Plonk and family of Murphy spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Plonk.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Weir and Mrs. Orr Weir left Wednesday for a visit in Tennessee.

Miss Laura Plonk spent the weekend with Mrs. Lawrence Lovell.

Miss Virginia Plonk of Laurinburg spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Plonk.

Miss Eleanor Myers and Miss Nancy Plonk, students at the Plonk School in Asheville spent the weekend with their parents.

Miss Martha Plonk returned Monday to the University of Ohio after spending the Spring holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Plonk.

M. L. Harmon is improving after an illness of several days.

Malcolm Patterson and Norman McGill, students at Erskine College, spent the weekend with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dilling and twin sons have returned to Raleigh after spending the Spring holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Troy Carpenter.

James Edward Amos has returned to Chapel Hill after spending the UNC Spring holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Amos.

A. P. Hubbard of Greensboro was the Saturday night guest of Martin Harmon.

John Chambers of Atlanta, Ga., was the weekend guest of J. W. Milam.

Mr. and Mrs. Tolly Shuford and children spent the weekend with Mrs. Shuford's parents in Durham.

Hubert Aderhold spent the weekend in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans and daughter, Sandra, spent the weekend in Asheville.

Earl Myers, Charles and Henry Neisler and George Thomason, students at Davidson, spent the weekend here with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McElwee, jr., and children of North Wilkesboro spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Plonk.

Mrs. S. S. Weir, jr., Mrs. Lila Ervin and Miss Derice Weir have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Glausier in Thomaston, Ga. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Marlene Weir who has been a guest of the Glausiers for a few weeks.

Robert Neill, Bill Harmon, Bud Warlick and Eddie Campbell, students at Gardner-Webb, spent the Easter weekend with their parents.

Houston Black has returned to Catawba College after spending the weekend with his parents.

The number of mules on North Carolina farms on January 1, 1948, was estimated at 269,000, the smallest January 1 inventory since 1923.

Uncle Sam Says

A new bonnet may get you in the Easter parade but your participation in the Payroll Savings Plan or the Bond-A-Month Plan will put you in the Security Parade. For the wage earner, payroll savings where you work enable you to acquire Savings Bonds on the partial payment plan. For the self-employed, your local bank maintains the Bond-A-Month Plan. U. S. Treasury Department

Gleaners Class Met At McGill Home

A large group of members of the Gleaners class of the First Baptist church met Monday evening at the home of Miss Mary McGill. Mrs. A. H. Herndon served as assistant hostess.

Lilacs, hyacinths and other spring blossoms were used to decorate the meeting rooms.

Mrs. J. B. Falls presided and several matters of routine business were dispatched.

An entertaining program of contests was presented by Mrs. Charles Owens after which the hostesses served a delicious salad and dessert course.

BUILDING PERMITS

Two building permits were issued at City Hall by S. A. Crouse, city clerk, during the past week. On March 25 a permit was issued to Willie Jackson for a new two room dwelling on Wilson street, cost $1,000. On March 30 a permit was issued to J. F. Cunningham for addition of two rooms to dwelling on Linwood road, cost $500.

Tobacco accounted for 53.2 percent, or $334,250,000, of the State's cash farm income in 1944.

—THE HERALD—$2.00 PER YEAR—

Job Printing

... Phone 167

Wanted! Your Dirty Clothes

Bring your clothes to town, leave them in one of our BENDIX washers, and pick them up when you're ready.

COMPLETE 45-MINUTE SERVICE

Plenty Parking Space

No mix-up—Each washing done in machine by itself. Clothes come out ready for IRONING—even on rainy days.

SELF SERVICE LAUNDRIT

Next To Victory Chevrolet

—On City Bus Route—

Telephone 100

CLEARANCE

at

Myers' Dress Shop

All Ladies'

COATS

Special Group

SPRING DRESSES

Crepes, Gabardines
Values to $24.95

All Ladies'

SUITS

1/2 PRICE

Each Garment An Outstanding Buy!

MYERS' DRESS SHOP

—Second Floor—

118

Day or Night

AMBULANCE SERVICE

Harris Funeral Home

"Yes, I have my clothes cleaned at FISHER'S. I like their quality work and prompt service."

J. A. FISHER and SON DRY CLEANERS

Phone 523