INDEPENDENCE DAY

Let us, this July Fourth, observe the anniversary of American Independence, not alone in the spirit of celebrating an achievement of 1776, but with a full recognition that independence —freedom as we know it— is a responsibility and a privilege we must continue to earn and maintain in 1948, working as a united people for and within the framework of our democratic principles.

Macedonia Society Met Monday Night

The Women's Missionary Society of Macedonia Baptist church met Monday night of last week at the home of Mrs. Clarence Compton.

To open the meeting, a prayer was offered by Mrs. Baxter Smith, after which a devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Beck Page.

The following program was presented in an impressive manner: "World Missions Need World Workers," Mrs. James W. Bolin; "Training World Workers in Our Schools and in Our Churches," Mrs. Jess Jen Kings; "Our Auxiliaries," Mrs. Clarence Compton; "Their Magazines," Mrs. C. B. Bobbitt; "Their Camps," Mrs. George Sellers; "More of Them," Mrs. O. C. Gunnells; "World Witnesses," Mrs. Carl Herndon.

During the social hour following the program, the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Woodmen Circle Had Regular Meeting

The Woodmen Circle held its regular meeting Friday night June 18, with a large group being present.

Mrs. Lou Moorhead of Shelby met with the Circle and presided over the meeting.

Three new members were initiated, Mrs. Ruby Dixon, Mrs. Genell Pittman and Miss Virgie Harmon.

During the business session, Miss Vergie Harmon was elected to serve as secretary of this Grove.

A mock wedding was planned for the social of the month which was held Friday night, June 25. All members were urged to be present at this time. An evening of fun had been planned which promised to provide hearty entertainment for all.

Miss Lona Carroll Weds Paul Hedgepath

Mr. and Mrs. William Carroll of Clover, S. C., route 3, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lona Pearl, to Paul Hedgepath of Clover and Gastonia.

The wedding took place on Sunday, June 13, at the home of the bride's pastor, Rev. C. T. Cobb, of Blacksburg.

Mrs. Hedgepath is a graduate of Bethany high school and the Gordon Crowell Memorial School of Nursing of Lincolnton. She is at present employed at Gaston Memorial Hospital in Gastonia.

The bridegroom holds a position with the Ford-Riddle Funeral Home of Gastonia.

The young couple are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Hovis of Iron Station.

Blue ribbons were awarded to 22 of the 67 animals exhibited in the fifth annual Wayne County Guernsey Cattle Show held at Goldsboro recently.
