SPORT SHOTS

BY CHARLES CARPENTER

Fishermen interested in the third annual fall fishing rodeo conducted on North Carolina beaches by the South Eastern North Carolina Beach Association still have plenty of time to compete for the various prizes offered.

The 1948 "rodeo" began on July 1 and doesn't end until October 31 and over $5,000 in cash and merchandise is being offered in the numerous divisions.

Anyone interested in looking over a copy of the directory and guide published by SENCBA, the sponsors of the rodeo, can drop by the Sportshot desk and look over our copy.

Long before August 17th arrives, North Carolina Junior baseball fans will be hanging on the ropes. That's the date the state champions have to be certified to National Headquarters.

Fact is, lots of them are about ready for the towel now.

Hickory's 9 to 2 plastering of Coach Buddy Lewis's Gastonia nine really muddles up the Area 4 water.

Before the Area 4 champ is determined, the two top teams in the second round of play, now almost completed, will have to meet in a crucial series.

Gastonia is almost a certain "advancer" to the crucial set-tee.

Hickory or Mecklenburg, the way it looks early this week, appear to be battling it down to the wire, for the second spot that is: That was to be settled in Gastonia Tuesday night.

The Gastons probably would rather see the Mecklenburgers in the A-respective departments named.

rea finals, they've mauled them at least four times this year. In elimination play they've split with the Hickory-sticks.

But the Mecklenburgers have been a fast improving squad.

We'll still stick with Coach Lewis and his team for the Area championship.

In other Areas the races have been all the way from "walk-a-ways" to "red hot."

Kannapolis's aspirants for a repeat on the state crown withdrew from an Albemarle series after losing the first game, an extra-inning affair, because of the pollo ban.

Must have had an insight over in Marvin Watt's camp after that first defeat by Brother Ginger (Watts), Albemarle coach.

The Stanley county folks are really warming up to the competition down there this year. Reminiscent of 1940.

Albemarle is to enter a series with Lexington that's the Area 3 picture.

In Area 2 Lumberton needs a win over Columbus County to cop the crown by a couple of games.

In Area 1 everybody withdrew leaving Chapel Hill with the crown.

First week in August Area land Area 2 battle it out and Area 3 and Area 4 will meet.

In South Carolina Greenwood has clinched the upper-state title and the right to meet the winner of a Darlington-Marion set-tee.

Fruits, Vegetables On Plentiful List

Southern menus during August shouldn't lack for a variety of vegetables and fruits, the U. S. Department of Agriculture said in releasing its monthly list of plentiful foods.

In the fresh vegetable line, Irish potatoes, cabbage, celery, and tomatoes hold top rank on USDA's August plentiful foods list. Potatoes are listed as an especially good buy with markets being well stocked.

Plentiful fruits for August are oranges and lemons. In addition, homemakers can find an array of canned fruits and vegetables on retail markets, including canned peas, tomato products, prunes, apple products, and citrus juices and segments.

Mississippi's vacation period season stretches the year round.
