"Barefoot Boy with... a Hobby"

It might have been "barefoot boy, with cheeks of tan... and a hobby" if the poet Whittier could have known Richard Collins, pictured above. Richard, a "summer student" at the day nursery operated at the P. H. Hanes Knitting Company's cotton spinning mill at Hanes, N. C., is shown engaged in his pet hobby, making rag rugs. He finds it better than school because, he says, "it's not so much work and a lot more fun."

Morehead Institute Opens September 20

RALEIGH. — The Morehead City Technical Institute, a functional part of N. C. State College, will open for its second school year on September 20, Director Edward W. Ruggles of the College's Extension Division announced here today. Students will register for the academic work on September 20, and class work will begin on Thursday, September 23. A number of openings are still available for students who have not indicated their desire to attend the Institute, he said.
