

When riding your bike, think of yourself as a driver rather than a pedestrian on wheels. Learn to be a top-notch cyclist by driving like a skillful motorist. Watch how a good driver operates. Notice that he is alert to all traffic conditions. He doesn't "play around" in traffic, because he knows how serious an accident can be.

Today's Bicyclists Are Tomorrow's Motorists.

A really good driver can be identified by the attitude he displays toward stop signs. Stop signs always mean — come to a full and complete stop and do not proceed until it is safe to do so. Yet you've seen some drivers come to a "rolling stop" — merely slowing down, giving quick glances to right and left, then whizzing ahead. Maybe you've been seen doing it yourself.

Do As The Sign Says—Stop!
