Senior Club Program Miss Jolly Hostess Deal With Education At Methodist Youth

When members of the Senior Woman's Club met last Friday evening, Mrs. W. R. Craig, chairman of the education department, presented a timely program having as its theme, "Do You Want To Cheat A Child?" Mrs. W. T. Weir gave the pressing needs of the present educational system, pointing out some things badly needed locally.

The Youth Fellowship group of Central Methodist church met Sunday evening at the home of Miss Patricia Jolly with fifteen members present.

A lively open forum discussion was led by Miss Doris Jolly who used a poster made in the M. Y. F. workshop as a center of interest.

After the program, the yearbook committee gave out the new yearbooks which has one page in tribute to the late Mrs. E. A. Shenk.

Following the business session, the hostess served ice cream, cake and punch and afterwards the young people went to the church to see the picture, "Voice In The Wilderness."

Mrs. John McGill, general chairman of the Floral Fair, called on each department chairman to give plans for the promotion of the Fair which will be an event of next month.

Next week the meeting will be at 6:30 p. m. at the home of Miss Patricia Prince, with Miss Joan Falls as leader. New officers will be elected at this time.

Plans were told by Mrs. Jacob Mauney for a bridge party to be given in October which will honor the new teachers and names to be voted upon for membership were submitted by Mrs. J. G. Winkler.

Uncle Sam Says

Can you keep on the "up" side of life's see-saw? The bumps come when you are on the "down" side and they aren't funny. For most of these bumps are financial ones and they hurt, unless you cushion the shock. Millions of Americans have discovered the safe, automatic pillow against financial bumps. That pillow is U.S. Savings Bonds. By allotting only $2.50 a week, you will accumulate $1440.84 in ten years. There are two convenient methods for the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds—the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank. U.S. Treasury Department
