

Mountaineers Face Unscored-On Hawks Here Friday

Kings Mountain high school Mountaineers meet Mt. Holly high school's Hawks, one of two teams in the state who are unscored upon, here in City Stadium Friday night at 7:30 p. m. in the last home football game of the season.

The Mountaineers take their 1-3-1 record into battle against a Hawk record of 3 wins. Mt. Holly has scored 24 points this season and has held their opponents scoreless.

Last year Mt. Holly dumped Kings Mountain in Mt. Holly by a score of 27 to 0. Hawk Mentor Harry A. dams, formerly of Catawba college, will bring a reportedly fast, hard-hitting team to City Stadium for the scrap and the Mountaineers will probably stack up as underdogs to their Gaston county visitors.

Senior J. B. Weaver, reserve tackle on the Mountaineer squad, will see plenty of action tonight, according to Coach Shu Carlton. A late candidate for the team, Weaver has been fast rounding into shape in his first year as a football player and was outstanding in practice sessions this week.

Another new man, Don Cashion, has been added to the squad and will probably see some action against the Hawks. He is a guard and will be in the lineup on defense according to Coach Carlton.

Band director J. C. Hedden also announced that the school band will perform on the field during the half, weather permitting. It will be the first public drill this season for the band, considerably behind schedule because of the recent polio ban.

Seniors, in addition to Weaver, who will play their last game in a Central uniform are: Jack Ruth, Boyce Huffstetter, and Jack Matthews, in the backfield; Garland Still, Jack Ledford, and Don Ellison, guards; Herman Mauney and Jack Camp, tackles; Bill Amos, end; and Herman Jackson, center.

More About General Election

In this county, there was some question as to whether Cleveland County would cast the 10,000-odd votes it cast for president in 1944, or that Kings Mountain would reach the 1,687 it cast in the general election of that year.

In 1944, Kings Mountain voted for the late President Roosevelt by 1,335 to 282 to Thomas E. Dewey, again the Republican standard-bearer. In Cleveland County, it was Roosevelt 8,164, Dewey 2,641.

Governor Strom Thurmond, the South Carolina "bolter" and Dixiecrat standard-bearer, was sure to get some votes, but few gave him a chance to carry North Carolina. There were some who argued that in Kings Mountain he would get few additional votes than those from disgruntled "conservative" Democrats, who, without the Dixiecrat candidacy, would have bolted anyway and cast a ballot for Dewey—which they did in 1944. Others felt Thurmond would make a greater appeal to the mass of the voters because of the controversial civil rights issue, and would therefore get a sizeable vote. Few thought Henry Wallace would get as much as one percent of the vote, here or anywhere in the state. Republicans hoped the Thurmond vote would siphon off enough Truman votes to put the state in the Dewey column by plurality.

Cleveland and Gaston counties were publicly, at least, still strongly in Democratic column, the Gastonia Daily Gazette, the Shelby Daily Star, and Kings Mountain Herald coming out flatly for re-election of President Truman. This was not the case in populous Mecklenburg, where both the Charlotte News and the Charlotte Observer had announced support of Governor Dewey. The News had always been Democratic, but the Observer regarded itself as independent. But the Observer had never cared much for Mr. Roosevelt.

North Carolina citizens would also vote yes or no on four amendments to the state constitution.

(1) To raise the pay of state legislators from $600 to $1,200 per session and with speakers of the house es to get $1,500 (there was also provided small salaries for special sessions).

(2) To eliminate the present debt limit on municipalities, counties, and the state.

(3) To raise the legal limit counties and cities can tax for general fund purposes from 15 cents per $100.

(4) To allow carrying of city and county bond elections by simple majority vote, rather than "against the books."

Predominant work in local races done by Republicans had been on the part of Calvin R. Edney, of Marshall, who is opposing veteran Representative A. L. Bulwinke, of Gastonia, for the 11th district seat in the House of Representative. Postoffice boxholders had been bombarded with almost-daily circulars supporting Mr. Edney. Mr. Bulwinke, on the other hand, had been doing much personal politicking and speech-making throughout the last several weeks and was a heavy favorite to succeed himself.

Harbison Is New Dixie-Home Manager

Yates Harbison, native of Morganton, assumed the duties of manager of the local Dixie-Home Super Market on Monday, succeeding Robert Yoder, of Lincolnton, who has managed the store for the past several months.

Mr. Harbison comes to Kings Mountain from the Dixie-Home branch at Gastonia, and formerly worked for the same firm in Charlotte for two years.

He is married and expects to move here as quickly as he can find accommodations.

Mr. Yoder became manager of the Lincolnton store as a result of the transfer.

JIM ELVINGTON—above, ace extra-point kicker for the Charlotte Clippers, established some sort of a record last Sunday by booting 12 straight points after and will be out to add to his season total of 31 in Memorial stadium, Charlotte, Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. when the Queen City gridders take on the Philadelphia Yellow Jackets.

Clippers After Fifth Victory Sunday At 3

CHARLOTTE — Each week proving itself to be the strongest professional football team ever based in this section, the Charlotte Clippers go after their fifth straight win and padding for their 40.5 points per game scoring average Sunday at 3 p. m. at Memorial stadium here.

Their opponents will be the Philadelphia Yellowjackets, who last year thrilled local fans with their colorful performance even in losing 31-21.

The Clippers expect no such romp as they enjoyed in burying the Long Island Indians under a record 92-0 landslide last Sunday. The Clippers' backers, the Queen City Athletic Club, is continuing to do its best to schedule the strongest opposition available, and Philadelphia on paper should furnish more argument than other teams in recent weeks.

The probable Philadelphia lineup: Ends — Ed Thompson of Penn and Ed Heller of Franklin & Marshall; Tackles — Hank Dieghan of St. Joseph's and John Cresadus of Temple; Guards—Bill Liebeknecht of Temple and John Maccarelli of St. Joseph's; Center — Bill Carrillo of Penn State; and Backs Harry Rockwell of North Carolina, Wade Welkel of Duke, and Lou Maccarelli of St. Joseph's.

The Clippers, of course, will counter with their touchdown specialists headed by End Rocco Spadaolini, who has taken 11 scoring passes in six games, and backfield whizzes Butch Butler, Casey Jones, Nick Ognovich, Carroll Blackwell, Jim Elvington, et al.

Some groups of girls will participate in a short ceremony during the service hour.

Monday is Home Making Day. On this day Girl Scouts are asked to sew and repair all old clothes that they are planning to put in the Clothing Kits.

Tuesday is Arts and Crafts Day. Girl Scouts will want to make things pretty as well as useful on this day. Wednesday is Health and Safety Day. This is the day that all Scouts will wash and iron the old clothes that they are putting in the Clothing Kits.

Thursday is International Day. On this day all Scouts will want to pack and ship their Clothing Kits.

Friday is Citizenship Day. The Scouts will be helping others by mailing their Clothing Kits.

Saturday is Out-of Doors Day. All Girl Scouts in Cleveland County will celebrate by attending Out-of Doors Day at Merriwoods from 2:30 to 5:30. Hallowe'en Being Observed In Advance

Though Hallowe'en comes on Sunday this year, the fact that the day of witches and spooks falls on this weekly Rest day will not mean that young folks, in their costumes and dress, will have to wait another year.

Highway Hearing Next Thursday

Commissioners Ben E. Douglas, Raymond Smith and D. Reeves Noland, members of the state highway commission, will conduct two hearings at the Legion building in Shelby next Thursday, November 4, on the proposed changes to be made on U. S. Highway 74 between Kings Mountain and Shelby.

The commissioners will convene in the morning at 10 o'clock to hear citizens protesting and favoring the re-routing around Shelby and at 2:30 p. m. to hear interested Kings Mountain area citizens, some who want the highway re-routed North of the city, others who prefer it to remain as it is.

W. Faison Barnes, Kings Mountain attorney, is representing local groups opposing the current proposals, and said he expected a large delegation of U. S. Highway 74 residents, Oak Grove and Patterson Grove citizens to attend the hearing.

several other parties in the Hallowe'en motif are being arranged.

Meantime variety stores report a run on horns, false-faces, masks, and other Hallowe'en equipment.
