Miss Gantt Honored At Bridge Party

The Woman's Club was the scene of a lovely party Tuesday night when Mrs. Jimmie Mercer and Mrs. T. L. Trent of Bennettsville paid charming compliment to Miss Mary Frances Gantt, bride-elect.

Seven tables for bridge were appointed for refreshments when the guests arrived. Each table was centered with tiny pitcher holding baby mums. The honoree wearing a lovely black suit found her place marked with a corsage of gardenias.

The hostesses assisted by Mesdames Ertle Powers, Linwood Parton, A. T. Randall, Miss Leone Patterson and Miss Annie Laurie Summitt served frozen fruit salad, chicken salad sandwiches, pickles, individual cakes iced in green and white and coffee.

When the covers were removed several animated progressions of bridge ensued. Top score was made by Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Mrs. Otto Williams, second high.

Miss Gantt was remembered with six pieces of crystal in her chosen pattern.

The club house was decorated with red, yellow and white chrysanthemums and ivy.

Several guests were invited in for refreshments.

Methodist Youth Think About Peace

The Methodist Youth Fellowship met Sunday evening in the youth chapel with 28 present. An open forum discussion on "Roads to Peace and War" was conducted by Jean Lynch. On two large blackboards at the front of the chapel were listed factors contributing to peace, and factors contributing to war. The group was divided into two sides with Jack Matthews heading the "Roads to War" side, and Patricia Prince heading the "Roads to Peace" side, with members from each side contributing to the list for their side. After making the lists, the group entered into a lively discussion on same. On the program also were Barbara Grantham and Dottie Smith, who read scripture pertaining to peace.

Following the business, the young people had choir practice.

On Thursday evening, the 18th, a large group of the Youth Fellowship attended the Gastonia sub-district banquet in Gastonia.

Next Sunday evening the group will meet early, at 5:30 in the church basement for a covered dish supper and "penny birthday party" (each member is to bring a penny for each year of his age, to be sent to a camp fund) before their program in the chapel. At 6:30 an interesting program "We Work for Peace" will be presented by the four commission chairmen, who will divide the Youth Fellowship into four groups and meet separately to plan what each may do this year to promote peace.

Fingers Entertain Couples Bridge Club

The Couples Bridge Club met with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finger Friday night, November 12.

Guests were present for play at three tables and the tables were laid for refreshments at the beginning of the party. A delicious desert course and coffee was served.

Guests other than club members were Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Hord, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. David Cavan of Atlanta, house guest of the host and hostess.

After several progressions gifts were presented Mrs. L. E. Abbott, J. D. Long for high score.

Mr. and Mrs. Cavan, house guests, were also remembered with gifts. The Finger home was a lovely setting for the party with the unusual arrangements of Giant Yellow Chrysanthemums, Magnolia leaves and berries.

Birthday Party At Huffstetler Home

Mrs. Andy Huffstetler was hostess to a delightful party at her home on Piedmont avenue Wednesday, Nov. 10, honoring her daughter, Patricia Diane, on her sixth birthday.

Beautiful chrysanthemums added a note of cheer to the living room where the games were played and enjoyed by all the children. After the lovely gifts were opened the children were invited to the dining room. A white hand embroidered cloth covered the table which held the birthday cake centered with pink and yellow roses. Places were marked by tiny favors of colored baskets filled with candy. Ice cream, cake and candy were served.

Those who attended were Betty Sue Kirby, Herby Yawn, Larry Dean Pearson, Judy Putnam, Carolyn Jonas, Becky Bowers, Paula Cole, Johnny Carpenter, Randall Yates and Patty Huffstetler.

Home Demonstration Club Met Thursday
