Frances Garrison Circle With Miss Ware

The Frances Garrison circle of the A. R. P. church met Monday night with Miss Annie Mae Ware.

Mrs. P. G. Rauterree conducted the devotional.

During the business meeting the circle made plans for spreading cheer at Christmas.

After the conclusion of the program a Christmas party was enjoyed, carols were sung and gifts exchanged.

Miss Ware assisted by Mrs. Orr Weir as co-hostess served delicious refreshments.

The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

Christmas Program At Presbyterian Church

Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at the Presbyterian church, a Christmas program, "With One Accord Sing Praises" will be presented. This is a service of Scripture and song and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to come and worship with us.

Marlene Weir Celebrates Birthday

Last Tuesday evening the home of Mrs. Coman Falls was the scene of a lovely party when Mrs. Sam Weir entertained members of the junior dancing class, paying lovely compliment to her little daughter, Marlene on her sixth birthday.

The Yuletide decorations were extremely pretty. On one end of the mantle was a candy Christmas tree; on the other end a lighted, Santa Claus with red Christmas stockings hanging from the mantle.

A beautiful two tiered birthday cake in pink and white adorned the center of the table, the children sang "Happy Birthday" after which Marlene blew out the candles. Ice cream and cake was served. Each one was given colored bells as favors. Pictures were made of the group.

MYF Continues Talks On Friendship

The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship met Sunday evening in the chapel with 22 present. They sat in a large circle for their program, a discussion on "The Use and Abuse of Friendship" led by Doris Jolly, assisted by Jack Matthews, who read the scripture, and Nan Jean Gantt who led the group in prayer. Following the business session, the group enjoyed refreshments provided by Mrs. W. M. Gantt and Circle No. 4 for both MYF groups.

At the evening service a large number of young people rendered a Christmas program in music. This junior choir was directed by Mrs. L. C. Brandon, Jr., with Miss Barbara Gault as the Youth organist. The auditorium was beautifully decorated for this candlelight service by Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr. Mike Milam read the scripture.

A large number of the Seniors were to attend the sub-District meeting at Trinity Methodist church Thursday night.

Next Sunday evening a worship service will be presented at the Senior MYF meeting with Jackie Wilson as leader.

Mrs. Jackson Fetes Duplicate Bridge Club

The Country Club was artistically decorated with poinsettias, mistletoe and holly Monday afternoon when Mrs. Howard Jackson entertained the Duplicate Bridge Club.

Lighted tapers and effective Christmas arrangements adorned the private dining room where the tables were arranged for bridge.

Mesdames L. E. Abbott and J. D.

Long won high score.

Invited guests were Mrs. Carl Mauney and Mrs. Dan Finger.

When cards were laid aside miniature candle arrangements were placed on each table, a delicious salad and sweet course with coffee was served.

Farm people in North Carolina eat more pork, both fresh and cured, than all other types of meat combined.
