Youth Fellowships Have Chinese Tea

Seniors of the Methodist Youth Fellowship met with the Intermediate Sunday evening for a Chinese tea, using real jasmine tea which the groups ordered, and cookies provided by Mrs. J. H. Arthur's circle, who also prepared the tea. Following this, the group went into their chapel for a program, "China Yesterday and Today." After the singing of a hymn, Billy Allen read the scripture and led the group in prayer. Jean Lynch, dressed in a Chinese robe, then told the story of "Dr. Aprocot," about a Doctor in China, which will be concluded by her at the next meeting of the M. Y. F.

Both groups were directed in Junior choir practice by B. S. Peeler, Jr., with Barbara Gault at the organ. They sang for the evening service. The Seniors were to meet for a "Workshop" Thursday with Nan Jean Gantt. They will also attend the sub-district meeting in Dallas Thursday, January 27. Cars will leave the church at 6:45 to take them.
