

Central Cagers Meet Lincolnton Here Friday Night In Double Bill

Kings Mountain high school basketball teams play hosts to teams from Lincolnton high here in Central gymnasium Friday night in a Western conference (Class A) doubleheader, the girls game set to get underway at 7:15 p. m.

The Mountaineers will be seeking their second win over the Lincolnton boys and their fifth loop victory of the season. Kings Mountain's boys defeated Lincolnton on Jan. 7 in Lincolnton in the first game of the schedule by a score of 31 to 20.

Coach Mabel Carpenter's Central lassies will be bucking the 1948 conference champions in Coach Jack Kiser's Kiserettes. The locals lost to the champs, who fielded virtually the same team as last year, on Jan. 7, 26 to 54. Kings Mountain will be gunning for its third loop win in four starts.

MOUNTAINEER CAGER Jack Ruth, above, hustling forward on Coach Don Parker's varsity boys squad has been hitting the baskets consistently this season. He'll be in the starting lineup against Lincolnton at Central gymnasium Friday night.
