YOUNG POLIO CONVALESCENT—This little fellow is one of the younger convalescents from polio now at the Camp Sutton convalescent hospital in Monroe. He is Stanley Langley, age two, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther P. Langley of Mount Holly. He receives physical therapy and tub treatments and in between times he is entertained a lot by his nurses. Without the dimes and dollars that are contributed each year in the March of Dimes his expert care would not be available. Every North Carolinian is being asked to double or triple his contribution this year in view of the tremendous costs resulting from the recent epidemic.
