Central Cagers Meet Cliffside Here Friday

Kings Mountain high school basketball teams are hosts to teams from Cliffside high here Friday night. Girls game is set to get underway at 7:15 p. m.

Coach Don Parker's boys will be on the revenge trail after suffering the first loss, in four starts, last Friday night to a fighting Lincolnton five. Cliffside, a contender for top loop honors, lost to Shelby Tuesday night.

Coach Mabel Carpenter's girls team is considered the favorite over Cliffside's girls.

Bob Huffstetler Signs With Giants

Bob Huffstetler, 18-year-old former Central high and American Legion catcher, has signed a baseball contract with the New York Giants according to an announcement this week by John Moss, Rock Hill, S. C., business manager of the Chiefs of the Tri State league and Giant scout. Huffstetler will probably go to Florida for spring training with the Giants at Sanford. Rock Hill will have option on his services when he is classified as a Class B. player.

A member of the North Carolina team in the Carolinas boys all-star game in Charlotte in 1948, the hustling catcher bats left-handed and throws right. In addition to his high school and Legion Junior baseball service he worked last season as batting practice catcher with the Hendersonville Skylarks of the Western Carolina class D. Loop. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Huffstetler of Lackey street.
