Throneburg In Duke Glee Club Concert

James C. Throneburg of Kings Mountain will take an active part in the annual mid-winter concert given at Duke University by the Men's Glee Club on February 11, under the direction of J. Foster Barnes.

Two Victor Herbert songs, March of the Toys from "Babes in Toyland," and Tramp, Tramp, Tramp from "Naughty Marietta," will be presented with incidental solo by Throneburg. The Glee Club will sing "On The Road To Mandalay," with one of the baritone obligatos by Throneburg. He is also a member of the Triple Quartet.

The program at Duke will consist of classical and popular numbers by the entire club of 140 student singers, the Triple Quartet, and in duet and solo presentation. The concert will be the first of a series of 16 appearances; one to be a broadcast over NBC in New York City.

Throneburg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Yates F. Throneburg of 900 W. Mountain street, Kings Mountain.

During more than 40 years as a manufacturer of motor trucks GMC has pioneered and introduced many of the features and developments now common to all trucks. GMC was first to offer six cylinder gasoline engines and 2-cycle Diesel engines, in trucks, first with four wheel brakes two-speed rear axles, and full pressure engine lubrication.
