It looks like Kings Mountain boys team has a fair chance of taking top conference honors. With only one loss to date it would appear that they could do less than end up in a tie with the two "pushing" clubs, Hickory and Rutherfordton-Spindale. That is considering those clubs have only a 12-game schedule as has Kings Mountain.

Two more victories — over Cherryville and Shelby — would undoubtedly sew up the race, however. Rumor has it that the Mountaineers are considering entering the state class A tournament, the same event which Hendersonville, also a Western conference member, won last year.

They will undoubtedly enter the Hickory Western conference tournament the second week in March. And the "B" boys are about to enter a "Bee" team tournament in Newton.

Jim Hullender is going great guns with the Gardner-Webb basketball team and ranks high in team and conference scoring races — Charles Neisler is on the Davidson college five and has seen Southern conference action — Jake Early was reported back in town after several weeks as instructor at a Florida baseball school. All tanned up, and raring to go, Jake was supposed to be at a baseball school at Central high in Charlotte this week — George Wilson is all primed for his expected battle for a berth with the Boston Red Sox this season — Chas. Ballard reportedly is on the way to Rock Hill of the Tri State loop — Gazette sports ed. Ken Alexander dropped in Tuesday on the way to G-W college accompanied by Cincinnati Reds scout Tex Mallard. Mallard was on hand during the Western semi-pro tournament here last July.

BOND ELECTION—The city board has announced a $50,000 bond election for stadium improvements. Now is the time for all citizens interested in seeing a suitable athletic plant in Kings Mountain to get down to work and pass the issue. Most every citizen is slightly red-faced at times when a fan from an opponent's city makes a slam about out park. And many fans also are heard to make remarks about the poor facilities to be had at City Stadium, both from the player standpoint and the paying customers. Something must be done about the sanitary facilities at the park for the benefit of citizens living close by. They have really had a lot to put up with and have raised many justified complaints about operations "in their back yards." It's time to act. Work for a better athletic plant.

Effort to form The Mountaineer Club have met with good success so far and an organizational meeting will soon be held. Plans for this year call for funds for a week's training trip for the football team at Camp Cherokee. Coach Carlton estimates the week session will about equal a month's practice in town. The team will be decked with new uniforms next year — black pants, gold shirts with black numerals, and black helmets.

Shower Given For Mrs. Paul Dover

The young Peoples Class of the Temple Baptist church entertained last Friday night at a shower for Mrs. Paul Dover at the home of Mrs. Bill Hullender.

The honoree was the recipient of many lovely gifts. After opening the gifts and enjoying a social hour the hostesses served pimento cheese sandwiches, potato chips, candy hearts and double colas.

Ace Of Clubs With Mrs. W. R. Craig

Mrs. W. R. Craig entertained members of the Ace of Clubs at a lovely party at her home Thursday afternoon.

Bright bowls of japonicas were used for decorations. After several interesting progressions Mrs. W. H.

Webb was presented high score prize for visitors and Mrs. Carl Mauney for members.

A fruit salad with sandwiches and coffee was served by the hostess.

Invited guests were: Mrs. W. H. Webb and Mrs. J. B. Simpson.

Tuesday Bridge Club With Mrs. H. R. Neisler

Mrs. H. R. Neisler was hostess this week at the Country Club when members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club met to play. Unusual arrangements of jonquils, early spirea and red carnations were used to decorate the party rooms.

After five progressions scores were counted and high score prize given to Mrs. P. M. Neisler.

A very tempting party plate was served at the conclusion of the game.
