Accorded Courtesy With Bridge Party

Delightful in appointment was the Bridge party given Tuesday night when Mrs. Coman Falls entertained the Tuesday Night Bridge club honoring one of the club members, Mrs. Harry Page, on her birthday.

Saint Patrick's colors were motif for the party details. Covers were laid when guests arrived and a tempting spaghetti dinner was served.

When covers were removed several progressions of bridge ensued. Score prizes went to Mrs. W. L. Ramseur and Mrs. Harry Page.

Pauline Club Met Tuesday Night

Fourteen members were present Tuesday night for the monthly meeting of the Pauline Community club.

"Bless Be The Tie That Binds" was sung to open the meeting, each member quoted a verse of scripture, Mrs. Jack Hullender led in prayer.

The business discussion was presided over by the president, Mrs. Earl Ledford. It was voted to have a club birthday supper for the next meeting celebrating the birthday of the club.

Mrs. Jack Hullender and Mrs. L. D. Green were winners in the contests. Mesdames Marshall Burton, Charles Bridges and Dewey Sizers, hostesses for the evening, served toasted cheese sandwiches, potato chips, strawberry short cake and coffee.

Mrs. Earl Ledford closed the meeting with prayer.

Cake-Cutting Held At Blalock Home

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Blalock entertained at a cake cutting at their home on Mountain street, Wednesday night after the rehearsal for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Joe Ann Blalock and Donald Crawford.

The living room was artistically arranged with bowls of white snap dragons and fern a color note of green and white was dominant in the decorations throughout the house.

A lace cloth covered the refreshment table and a pretty three-tiered wedding cake in all white topped with a miniature bride and groom surrounded with white roses occupied the center of the table, flanked on either side with silver candelabras holding lighted white tapers.

After the first slice of cake had been cut by the bride-elect, Miss Piccola Blalock cut and served the cake assisted by Mrs. E. K. Whitener.

On the serving table from a large crystal bowl banked with fern and white flowers punch was served by Mesdames, Robert Early, Kenneth Pruitt and Miss Kay Cole. Fancy mints and mixed nuts were passed.

The lovely and useful gifts were in the den. Music was furnished by Mrs. L. C. Pinnix.

Guests included the bridal party members of the families and a few close friends.
