Attractive Party For Miss Griffin

The Woman's Club house was the scene of a lovely party last Wednesday night when Mrs. Fred McDaniel and Miss Carolyn McDaniel entertained with six tables of bridge as a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Je'Anne Griffin, bride-elect of April.

An effective arrangement of mixed spring flowers were used in the hall and lounge, tables were appointed for refreshments on the arrival of the guests. The honoree's place was marked with a corsage. Each table held a miniature wedding slipper filled with dainty spring flowers. A salad course with accessories and coffee was served. A dessert course was passed. A corsage of small silver wedding bells were placed on each plate.

After the progressions high score prize was won by Mrs. James McKinney, Miss Je'Anne Griffin won consolation and Mrs. L. E. Abbott received the floating prize.

The hostess presented Miss Griffin crystal in her chosen pattern.

Dinner Party Given By Hal D. Wards

Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Ward entertained at a dinner party at their home Saturday night in honor of Miss Edna Rowe, sister of Mrs. Ward and Mr. Wheeler Dale of Morganton.

The home was attractively decorated with pretty flowers of the early spring. A beautiful green cloth and napkins graced the dining table centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons and fern. A tempting four course dinner was served.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the Ward family other than the honorees were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Holland Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Myers Hambright and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Yarboro.

Miss Chloe Lynn Given Miscellaneous Shower

A lovely pre-nuptial courtesy was shown Miss Chloe Lynn, bride-elect of April, on Friday night, March 25th when Mrs. Joe Kelly and Miss Margaret Paysour entertained at the home of Mrs. J. E. Mauney.

The home was decorated with clever arrangements of spring flowers. Bridal games and contests were participated in with gifts going to the winners. Highlight of the party was presenting Miss Lynn with a miscellaneous shower of gifts. Mrs. Don and Crawford, a recent bride, was presented a gift by the hostess.

The bridal motif of green and white was carried out in the refreshments.

A large group of friends from Kings Mountain and Miss Marjorie Packard of Mars Hill, Mrs. R. J. Lynn of Shelby, Mrs. R. L. Sparks, Mrs. L. E. Price, Mrs. Carl Sparks and Misses Clemey and Maverline Sparks of Cliffside were present and wished the honoree much happiness.

Tuesday Club With Mrs. H. R. Neisler

Mrs. C. D. Blanton and Mrs. W. L. Ramseur joined members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club when they met at the home of Mrs. H. R. Neisler. The tables were grouped for play amid a setting of lovely spring flowers.

High award for the afternoon was given Mrs. C. D. Blanton. A salad course and with other party dainties was served.

Dinner Bridge Given By L. E. Abbots

The private dining room of the Country club was made bright with bowls of spring flowers, the table appointments emphasized the same idea and guests were directed to their places by appropriate place cards Saturday night when Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Abbott were hosts to the members of the Bid and Bye Club and invited guests.

A delicious dinner was enjoyed after which bridge was played at five tables.

When scores were compared high score prizes were given Mrs. H. R. Neisler and Dr. Padgett. Haywood E. Lynch won the floating prize.

Invited to play with the club members were Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Neisler, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Neisler, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Riley, Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Padgett, and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Blanton.

The Misses Brandon Honored At Luncheon

Roberta and Anne Elise Stender were hostesses to some friends for lunch on Wednesday honoring Becky and Peggy Brandon who are moving away.

The table was attractively decorated in spring flowers. Places were set for eight and candy bunny rabbits were used as place cards. Each guest was given an attractively decorated egg shell filled with candy eggs and the honor guests were each presented a gift.

Those invited for lunch besides the honor guests were Misses Jane Thomson, Georganna Moss, Sarah Houser and Billie Gibbons.

Eunice Bible Class Met Monday Night

The Eunice Bible Class of the First Baptist church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. J. M. Rhea with Mrs. Baxter Wright as co-hostess.

Mixed spring flowers were used to adorn the rooms.

Mrs. A. W. Kincaid presided over the business. Reports from the standing committees were heard. Eighteen members were present.

Mrs. W. M. Moorhead, program chairman, led in the games and contests. Prizes were won by Mrs. Bill Baker and Mrs. Earl Ledford.

During the social hour light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Tolly Shuford Fetes Duplicate Club

Mrs. Tolly Shuford entertained members of the Duplicate Bridge Club and several guests to make up three tables on Monday afternoon.

Violets and other spring flowers were used as decorations. After the progressions Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., and Mrs. George Houser were rewarded high score prizes.

A savory salad course was served.

Couples Bridge Club With Dan Fingers

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finger delightfully entertained the members of the Couples Club and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Riley last Friday night at their attractive home on Gold street.

An effective arrangement of spring flowers was noticed in the living room where tables were placed for bridge. A tempting dessert course was served prior to the progressions.

Mrs. S. R. Suber, Jr., and George Mauney were recipients of high score prizes.
