

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS

of INTEREST to WOMEN

MRS. P. D. HERNDON, Editor

PHONE 167

MYF Placing Emphasis On 'Worship'

"Time for Communion With God" was the topic at the evening meeting of the Methodist Youth Fellowship Sunday. Jack Matthews, program chairman, will conduct a program next Sunday evening on "Quiet Times During Holy Week." These programs help answer the question, "What Is Worship?" asked in the Senior Church School class. A special program, "Playing Hands" was presented Sunday morning in the youth chapel, featuring the interpretation of Dure...

Next Sunday morning another special program, "The Old Rugged Cross," with interpretations of hymns about the cross, special music, and "The Legend of the Dogwood" will be presented in the youth chapel at ten o'clock. Kitty Falls will serve as program chairman.

Senior Woman's Club To Meet April 15th

The Senior Woman's club will meet at the club house Friday April 15, at 7:30. Mrs. Otto Hehn, chairman of the fine arts department will present a program on Art in Czecho, Slovakia. Mrs. M. L. Plonk is hostess chair-

Birthdays Noted

Mr. Floyd Payne and Mrs. Linwood Parton were honored by their friends on the occasion of their birthdays by a party given Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Payseur. Woodland flowers, pink honeysuckle and dogwood decorated the apartment.

Mr. Payne and Mrs. Parton were showered with lovely gifts, and each blew out candles on their gaily-decorated birthday cakes.

Refreshments, consisting of home-made ice cream, cake, peanuts, and coffee, were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Parton, Miss Linda Parton, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Payne, Mrs. Grady Yelton, Mr. Douglas Yelton, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Payseur.

Shower Given For Mrs. Paul Dover

Mrs. Paul Dover was the inspiration of a most delightful surprise party given last Thursday night when Miss Bernice Harrison and Mrs. George Dorsett entertained at the home of the former.

Red glads were used in the living room, pink and blue carnations in the dining room. Numerous games were enjoyed and delicious refreshments served by the hostesses.

High light of the evening was the shower presented Mrs. Dover. Twenty-five ladies attended the party.

Miss Griffin Receives Courtesy

Miss Je'Anne Griffin whose wedding to Robert Sellstrom Bargar will be an event of Saturday night was accorded a lovely courtesy Saturday April 2nd, when Mrs. B. M. Squires of Charlotte entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon at Kuesters.

Spring flowers in pastel shades were used in a large bowl in the center of the table with green candles at each end. The bride and her mother were given corsages of gardenias. The place cards were small rolling pins. The bride-elect's was autographed by the guests.

Miss Griffin was very striking in navy blue with pink accessories.

Covers were laid for Miss Griffin her mother, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, Mrs. Fred McDaniel, Mrs. R. H. Webb, Mrs. J. H. Arthur, Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Jr., Misses Marion Arthur, and Mary Ann Crouse of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Norman Morow, Jr., Mrs. Iley and Mrs. Squires of Charlotte.

Pictures of the guests were taken before the luncheon. Mrs. Morrow drew the lucky number and received as a gift a miniature clothes brush and lip stick holder.

The hostess presented the honoree a silver butter dish, artistically wrapped in green topped with a miniature bride dressed in a lace gown.

A delicious luncheon of grapefruit, green pear salad, chicken pie, pease, baked stuffed Irish potatoes, hot rolls, lime ice cream and coffee was served.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—Mr. and Mrs. O. David McDaniel announce the engagement of their only daughter, Doris Elizabeth, to Charles A. Plyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Thomas Plyler, of Gastonia. The wedding will take place in June.

The G. H. Mauneys Fete Couples Bridge Club

Dr. and Mrs. Jacob Mauney were invited to play with members of The Couples Bridge Club last Friday night when it met with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney at their home on Piedmont avenue.

Jonguils and tulips interspersed with greenery were used as decorations. Tables were appointed for refreshments on the arrival of guests and chocolate pie with coffee was served.

After the progressions when scores were added Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Suber were high and presented gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Anthony, Jr., have been invited to join the club

Miss Griffin Honoree At Bridge Party

Mrs. Claude Hambricht graciously entertained members of The Twin Tables Bridge Club and invited guests to make up a third table at her home Thursday night.

Miss Je'Anne Griffin, a much feted bride of the month was an honor guest, her place at head table was marked with a corsage of gardenias. Scoring honors in the game went to Mrs. Jay Patterson and Miss Griffin for visitors' with Mrs. Paul Mauney winning high score among the members.

Miss Griffin was presented silver in her chosen pattern.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Jay Patterson, Mrs. C. F. Thomasson and Mrs. Tolly Shuford served a sweet course with nuts and coffee.

Circle Meetings

Central Methodist Circle No. 1 of the Central Methodist church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. M. L. Houser.

Mrs. J. R. Davis opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. P. E. Hendricks gave an introduction to the lesson, which was the Easter lesson followed by 1 Cor. 15, 51-57, after which the group joined in silent prayer. All joined in singing "Come Thou Almighty King". An interesting lesson on Latin America was given by Mrs. Hendricks. She closed her remarks with a very earnest and since plea to send missionaries.

The group was led in prayer by Mrs. J. O. Plonk. Mrs. J. R. Davis, leader, presided over a brief business meeting. Roll was called and minutes of the last meeting read by the secretary.

Mrs. Houser assisted by Mrs. Poston served an ice course and fruit drink.

Circle Number Five of Central Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. A. H. Patterson and Mrs. C. E. Warlick on Gaston street Monday evening.

Bowls of vari-colored tulips and other spring flowers were arranged in the living room and den.

The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. T. A. Pollock who used the theme, "God—Everything to Everyone," and opened the service with the hymn, "Lead Kindly Light."

Mrs. W. R. Craig had charge of the study on, "Light in Latin America," discussing the Cross in Latin America and The Christian Faith in Latin America.

During the business session an auction sale was held with Mrs. W. R. Craig as auctioneer.

The hostesses served orange chiffon cake with strawberries and whipped cream, accompanied with a choice of coffee or the spring tonic, sassafras tea.

Circle No. Six met in the home of Mrs. Jim Kerns.

Mrs. Clarence Jolly had charge of the devotional and the program. Mrs. Lattimore leader, presided over the routine business. Fourteen members were present.

Mrs. Kerns served very appetizing refreshments carrying out the Easter idea.

The home was beautifully decorated with sprays of crab apple and other spring flowers.

Presbyterian

Circle No. One of the Presbyterian church met Monday night with Miss Carlyle Ware.

Mrs. Charles Murphy gave the Bible lesson from John. Mrs. E. T. Platt read an article written by Dr. Walter Lingle, on "Meditations On Race Relations."

Seventeen members were present. Mrs. Gordon Beatty, leader, welcomed four new members, Mrs. Bill Beam, Mrs. George Barber, Mrs. Grady Rhea, and Mrs. Boyce Ware.

A social hour was enjoyed. The hostess served a refreshment plate.

Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. R. H. Webb for their first meeting of the year.

Mrs. P. D. Patrick gave the Bible lesson. The circle is studying the book of John.

The program consisted of an article from the survey "So, This Is Student Work," and was given by Mrs.

Paul Mauney.

During the business presided over by the leader, Mrs. Webb, plans were made of the work off the year. Ten members were present.

Sandwiches and punch was served during the social period.

Circle No. 3 of the Presbyterian church held a very inspirational meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. Phillip Padgett Monday night.

Mrs. H. E. Lynch gave the devotional. The circle is studying the book of John.

Mrs. E. A. Harrill read an article from the Survey, "So This Is Student Work."

The circle was delighted to have Mrs. Don Blanton who is president of the Women of the Church to visit with them at this time. Plans were discussed for the year's work. Fifteen members were present.

Mrs. Billie Ruddock will have charge of the program at the next meeting.

After the business period punch and cookies were served by the hostess.

Circle No. 5 of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. P. D. Patrick Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Patrick gave the devotional and Bible study which was taken from the book of John.

Mrs. H. N. Moss, leader, was in charge of the business and also gave the article from the Survey.

Ten members were present. Delightful refreshments were passed during the social period.

SLICES of LIFE

"And I want to thank my grocer for recommending HOLSUM Vitamins Enriched Bread"

BEST FOR SANDWICHES

Holsum BREAD

Double Your Money... In Carole King Junior Mix-ables

DOUBLE DANDY To wear as it is... to mix and change about—it's a doubly wise junior who chooses a jumper and blouse for bright spring days. Stripe and plain spun rayon in junior sizes 9 to 15. $14.95

BIG MOMENT Go a-maying... pick daisies... laugh in the sun... and wear this beguiling skirt and blouse, the skirt of spun rayon butcher-lin, the blouse (wear it on or off shoulder) of striped chambray, mercerized and Sanforized*. Junior sizes 9 to 15. $12.55

As seen in Mademoiselle and Glamour

Other Carole King Juniors from $8.95

BELK'S DEPARTMENT STORE

Remember—You Always Save At BELK'S

B. & B. Food Stores, Inc.

Table with 2 columns: Top-Grade Meats and Fresh Produce. Items include Pork Chops, Pork Sausage, Chuck Roast, Boneless Stew, Sugar, Vienna Sausage, Orangeade, Cranberry Sauce, Sunshiae Graham Crackers, Green Beans, Carrots, Celery, and Squash.