

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL HAPPENINGS
of INTEREST to WOMEN

MRS. P. D. HERNDON, Editor

PHONE 167

MRS. B. CLARK PATTERSON

Miss Betty Turner Became Bride
Of B. Clark Patterson Saturday

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening April 30, at 5:30, Miss Betty Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Turner of Graham, N. C., and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lackey, became the bride of B. Clark Patterson, son of Mrs. Flora B. Patterson, and the late D. G. Patterson at the home of the bride, Rev. J. L. Norris, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Forming a setting for the ceremony were arrangement of white gladioli and fern with seven tranchee candelabra holding white tapers. Bill Turner, brother of the bride, lighted the candles. Mrs. Don Huffman in a grey street length dress and carrying a rose-gay of camellias and rosebuds was matron of honor. Manly Patterson, brother of the groom was best man.

The bride wore an ankle length dress of white organdy with a fitted bodice and full skirt with embroidered insertion and wide light green sash with matching hat. She carried a white prayer book topped with a natural orchid showered with white satin streamers.

After the ceremony a reception was held. The guests including members of the families, out of town guests and friends.

For traveling, Mrs. Patterson wore a grey tweed suit and grey hat with royal blue accessories. She used the orchid from her prayer book for a shoulder bouquet.

Mrs. Patterson is a graduate of Graham high school and took a commercial course at Elon college. She now holds a secretarial position with Western Electric company in Burlington.

The groom is a graduate of Mebane high school and attended the University of North Carolina. He was a veteran of World War II and served 3 years with the Marine Corps in the Pacific theatre of war. He now holds a position with U. S. Rubber Company in Burlington.

After a short wedding trip, they will be at home at 522 Sideview ave., Graham, N. C.

Mrs. J. C. Lackey attended the wedding.

Mrs. Lattimore Fetes
Tuesday Bridge Club

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club met with Mrs. Charles Dilling this week. Invited to play with the members were Mesdames H. E. Lynch, L. A. Kiser and George Houser. Mrs. G. S. Still won high score for the afternoon with Mrs. H. R. Neisler winning high in the series and Mrs. G. F. Lattimore winning second high.

At the conclusion of the progressions the hostess served an ice course with cakes.

Birthday Party
Tuesday Night May 10

The Women-of-the-Church of the First Presbyterian church will have its annual birthday party on Tuesday night, May 10, at 7:30.

An invitation is extended to all the congregation to come.

The Birthday Objective to which the gifts will go are Brazil Mission Work and the American Bible Society. As guests for this party will be Rev. Charles Bixler and his family. Mr. Bixler was assistant pastor for two summers, while a student in the Seminary, and is now pastor of the Presbyterian church in Sharon, S. C. He was born in Brazil and lived there until he came to this country for his college education, his parents being missionaries to that country.

Mrs. Lingard Honored
At Dinner

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Ramseur entertained at a dinner party in the private dining room at the Country Club on Friday evening for Mrs. E. L. Lingard of Harrogate, England.

Roses were used throughout the dining room.

A delicious steak supper with accessories was served the following guests: Mrs. Lingard, Mr. C. E. Neis-

Circle Meetings

Methodist

Circle No. 1 of Central Methodist church held the final meeting of the year at the home of the leader, Mrs. J. R. Davis. Eight members were present. Mrs. J. L. Settemyre led in the devotional. A most interesting and appealing lesson, "The World at Our Door," was presented by Mrs. L. L. Alexander. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved.

The treasurer's report showed a surplus of $24 in the local collections and it was decided to give this money to help buy a rug for the Young Peoples chapel.

Lovely arrangements of roses and iris were used throughout the house. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. W. A. Williams Monday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting.

In the absence of their leader, Mrs. O. O. Jackson, Mrs. C. A. Goforth was in charge. The devotional was given by Mrs. E. L. Campbell. The topic for discussion was, "By His Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Brendall and was led by Mrs. H. T. Fulton. Light Shall The Nations Walk." This time, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunnicutt and Dr. and Mrs. Ramseur.

Mrs. J. F. Ware were guests. Nine members were present.

During the social hour the hostess assisted by Mrs. Otto Williams and Miss Maud Williams served a desert course.

Circle No. 5 met Monday night with Mrs. W. R. Craig. Mrs. J. H. Arthur leader, presided, this being the last meeting of the conference year routine business was rounded up.

Fourteen members were present. The topic for discussion was "Home Life" and a very interesting discussion was led by Mrs. W. R. Craig. Each member took part in an informal discussion.

Attractive arrangements of iris, snapdragons and roses were used throughout the home.

Strawberry short cake was served during the social half hour before the meeting.

Circle No. 6 met Monday night with Mrs. Mack Gantt.

Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg presented a very interesting program on "Home Week in America." Mrs. E. W. Griffin, president of WSCS, was guest of the circle. Fifteen members were present.

During the social hour delicious refreshments were served.

Presbyterian

Circle No. 2 of the Presbyterian church met Monday night with Mrs. Paul Mauney with Mrs. S. S. Weir as co-hostess.

Mrs. P. D. Patrick gave the Bible study which was taken from John.

Mrs. Jack Arnette was in charge of the program. Interesting articles on "Church Expansion in Mecklenburg" were presented.

Delightful refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

Circle No. 3 of the Presbyterian church met Monday night in the home of Mrs. Maynard Snow.

In the absence of the leader, Mrs. Padgett, Mrs. E. A. Harrill presided. Twelve members were present. It was voted to change the meeting from the first Monday night to the second Monday night.

Mrs. Lynch gave the Bible Study which was taken from John.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess.

Circle No. 4 met Monday night with Mrs. W. L. Ramseur.

Mrs. Robert Miller, leader, presided. Eleven members were present.

Mrs. O. W. Myers gave the Bible Study which was taken from John. Mrs. Frank Hoyle and Mrs. Ramseur read articles on the Birthday Objective.

Flatter Mother

WITH SOMETHING SMART TO WEAR

Your best chance to please Mom on Sunday is to give her something to wear . . . from Belk's fine array of women's fashions . . . A chic hat . . . a lovely summer dress . . . a frilly slip . . . a dainty blouse. Yes, Mother will appreciate something personal, something she can use and enjoy.

A visit to Belk's will solve that Mother's Day Gift problem in quick time.

SPECIAL

41-inch WASH SILKS

Summer weight—all wanted colors: white, navy, black, pink, green, blue, aqua, maize, red. Suitable for blouses, lingerie, dresses.

$1.00 Yd.

Belk's Department Store

Remember—You Always Save At Belk's

Picture your kitchen with walls like these!

CONGOWALL

Colorful! Practical! Amazingly inexpensive!

Easy to install! Wonderful, new Congowall—the permanent baked enamel wall covering with a raised tile effect—stays bright and beautiful for years, never needs refinishing! Its glistening, washable surface resists dirt, grease, scratches. Ideal for every "service" room! See the lovely, new Congowall colors today! In convenient 54" waistcot height.

Only 50c running foot off the roll

NOVELITE

Venetian Blind Co.

Margrace Phone 367-W

