Bridge Party Given By Mrs. Claud Hambricht

Bridge was played progressively at two tables Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Claud Hambricht entertained at her home on West Mountain street. Bowls of roses were used in the living room where the tables were placed for bridge.

The hostess served ice tea and a dessert course of strawberry chiffon pie topped with whipped cream.

Those playing included Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Mrs. Amos Dean, Mrs. Martin Harmon, Mrs. H. M. Heavner, Mrs. G. W. Mauney, Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Mrs. Hal Plonk and Mrs. Tolly Shurford.

When cards were laid aside and scores counted Mrs. Hal Plonk was high with Mrs. Martin Harmon receiving the consolation prize.

Mrs. Tolly Shurford Hostess To Circle

The Frances Hamilton Circle of the ARP church met Monday night with Mrs. Tolly Shurford with Mrs. N. M. Farr as co-hostess.

Mrs. W. L. Pressly gave the devotional and was also in charge of the program. The topic for discussion was "The Junior and Intermediate Christian Union," those taking part on the program, Mrs. Claud Hambricht, Mrs. John Gamble, and Mrs. Stefie.

Fifteen members were present. During the social hour the hostesses served strawberry short cake.

Mrs. E. W. Griffin Fetes Study Club Members

Members and guests of the Study Club were entertained Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. E. W. Griffin. The home was especially pretty for the delightful occasion with the beautiful floral arrangements used throughout the rooms.

Mrs. B. N. Barnes, president, presided over a short business session. The telephone committee for the next three months was appointed. Mrs. Aubrey Mauney announced Miss Frances Query would speak in the First Presbyterian church May 29th on "The Work of the North Carolina Church Women."

Mrs. O. W. Myers, program chairman for the month introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Zoe Kincaid Brockman, Editor of the Woman's page of the Gastonia Gazette. Mrs. Brockman is winner of numerous poetry and short story awards, is a member of the American Poetry Society and past president of the North Carolina Poetry Society. In a very witty and entertaining manner she spoke of "Women in Newspaper Work." She told of many interesting experiences she has had in the past thirty years in newspaper work. She closed her talk with a poem she had written that morning.

Invited guests included Mrs. Brockman, Mrs. J. T. Loesch of New York, Mrs. Frank McDonald of Gastonia, Mrs. T. A. Kay of Charleston, West Va., Mrs. Crossland of Bennettsville, Mrs. J. H. Brendall, Mrs. G. W. King, Mrs. J. C. McKinney, Mrs. Rowell Lane, Mrs. W. R. Craig, Miss Marie Lineberger and Miss Janet Scoggins.

The hostesses assisted by Mesdames Frank McDonald, J. C. McKinney and P. D. Herndon served pressed chicken and other party delicacies with a fruit drink. Cherry ice cream pie was passed.

Miss Peggy Smith Given Crystal Shower

Complimenting Miss Peggy Smith, bride-elect of June, Mrs. G. A. Bridges, Mrs. B. T. Wright, Jr., and Mrs. J. C. Bridges entertained at the home of the former Tuesday night.

The Bridges home was tastefully decorated with white roses. Heart's Dice was enjoyed at four tables, after each game the winner was presented a dainty apron which she wore the rest of the evening.

The bridal colors of green and white were carried out in the refreshments of ice cream, cookies and a drink.

Climax of the evening was presenting the honoree with a large basket of gifts when opened, she found them to be pieces of crystal in her chosen bridal pattern.

I. E. Abbotts Entertain Bridge Club

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Abbott were hosts at the meeting of the Couples Bridge club at their home last Friday night. Guests other than club members were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stallings.

Attractive bowls of mixed spring flowers were used in the living room. A dessert course was served before the progressions started.

When scores were compiled Mrs. C. F. Thomason was high for ladies with George Mauney carrying off high prize for men.

Training Classes Held For Girl Scout Leaders

The Training classes, held Tuesday and Thursday, May 10 and 12, at the First Baptist church, were well attended and enthusiastically received by Girl Scout leaders and members of sponsoring groups. There were 30 attending on Tuesday and 36 on Thursday. These groups were made up of representatives from eight churches — First Baptist, Central Methodist, First Presbyterian, Lutheran, Grace Methodist, Wesleyan Methodist, Temple Baptist, and Associate Reform Presbyterian. The Training Committee of the Girl Scout Town Council made arrangements for the training classes at this time because of the number new troops, leaders, and troop committees seeking orientation.

The classes were taught by Miss Fannie Funderburke, Area Field Worker, and Miss Flo Stabler, County Girl Scout Field Worker.

Mrs. G. F. Lattimore Gives Series Of Parties

One of the loveliest parties of the week was given by Mrs. G. F. Lattimore at her home on Piedmont Avenue Wednesday afternoon.

Tasteful arrangements of roses, columbine, snap dragons and larkspur were used to bring color and charm and to form a beautiful background for the four tables arranged for bridge.

After the progressions the hostesses served a frozen fruit salad plate with other party dainties.

Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., was recipient of the high score prize, Mrs. D. M. Peeler winning second high, and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney receiving the consolation.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Lattimore was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club. Interesting progressions of bridge were enjoyed with Mrs. H. R. Neisler carrying off high honors, Mrs. George Houser winning second high, Mrs. T. W. Timberlake of Arlington, Va., was presented a guest prize.

Those playing other than club members were Mrs. Timberlake, Mrs. George Houser, and Mrs. Arnold Kiser.

During the social hour the hostesses served a frozen salad course.
