Roberts-McSwain Vows Spoken

Miss Jeanette McSwain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McSwain, of Kings Mountain, became the bride of Charles D. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Roberts of Fresno, Calif., Saturday morning at 10:30 at Bethlehem Baptist church. Rev. J. W. Suttie, of Shelby, who married the bride's parents, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with greenery and floor baskets of white gladiolus flanked by seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers. A program of wedding music was furnished by Miss Lorice Fogleman, pianist, and Miss Pauline Hayes, soprano. Numbers included "The Rosary," by Nevin, "Traumerel," by Schumann, "Because," by D'Hardelet, and "Clare de Lune" by Debussy. Wagner's Wedding March from "Lohengrin," was used for processional and Mendelssohn's March from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the recessional. During the ceremony "Liebesraum" by Liszt was softly played.

Mrs. Juanita M. Warren, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. Eugene McSwain, brother of the bride, served as best man and ushers were A. G. Dillingham, Jr., and Paul E. Hayes.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white suit and navy blue accessories with an orchid corsage. The matron-of-honor wore a gray suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hayes entertained at a wedding luncheon for the couple and a few intimate friends.

Mrs. Roberts received her education at Kings Mountain High school, Gardner-Webb college and Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. She now holds a position with the State Department in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Roberts is a member of the Ceremonial company of Fort Myers, Arlington, Va., whose duty it is to guard the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

The couple will make their home in Arlington, Va.

Mrs. Dickie Tate Gives Lovely Party

White glads, snapdragons and roses were effectively used to decorate the home of Mrs. Dickie Tate last Thursday night when she entertained at four tables of bridge and two of Rummy.

Tables were appointed for refreshments on arrival of the guests. Each table was centered with a gold antique bud vase holding a red rose bud. Pecan pie, ice cream and punch was enjoyed prior to the games.

Miniature lace hats in pastel shades were given as favors.

High scorer for the evening was Mrs. L. E. Abbott. Consolation prize going to Mrs. Pete McDaniel. Miss Irene Allen won the floating prize.

Mrs. W. E. Simpson won high in Rummy.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Bob Trevarthen and Mrs. Carl Lewis of Gastonia.

The date of Easter can vary as much as thirty five days, from March 21 to April 25.

Carlisle Isley, Husband Of Former Citizen, New Mayor Of Burlington

S. Carlisle Isley, husband of the former Miss Margaret Plonk of Kings Mountain, is the new mayor of Burlington.

Mr. Isley, personnel manager of Standard Hosiery Mills of Burlington polled 1,539 votes in the May 10th balloting to lead all other candidates, and he was unanimously named to serve as mayor by other elected members of the Burlington city council.

A native of Burlington, Mr. Isley is a graduate of the local high school and attended Duke University before transferring to the University of North Carolina where he obtained his A. B. Degree. He formerly worked for Duke Power Company, later worked in the personnel department of Burlington Mills, and then became personnel director at Standard Hosiery two and a half years ago. He is secretary-treasurer of the local Rotary Club, and is publicity chairman and member of American Business Club. He serves on the Board of Stewards at Front Street Methodist church and is a member of the choir there.

Commenting editorially on the selection of Mr. Isley as the city's new mayor, the Burlington Daily Times-News said:

"Burlington has a new, youthful, energetic, enthusiastic and intelligent Mayor in S. Carlisle Isley who was sworn in to succeed Mayor Roman Sanders.

"It was in order for the person polling the largest number of ballots in the election to be accorded the honor of 'good will ambassadorship of the city' and presiding officer of the Council. In the active leadership of the community; in the church, in civic affairs, as an industrial and executive officer — and now as political leader — the new Mayor has earned an enviable position as a young man.

"There is no question about his fellow Council members confidence in his ability to counsel with them wisely in the interest of sound economy and community progress, working together for an efficient management through the Manager employed to advise them and carry out in turn such directive as he receives from them.

"The Daily Times-News congratulates both Mayor Isley and those who will serve with him, and the voters for their decision on Tuesday. The new officers should have an eminently successful administration, in self-satisfaction in public services rendered."
