Birthday Party Honors Couple

Mrs. Baxter Payseur was surprised on Saturday night when a group of her friends entertained for her and Mrs. Grady Yelton at the home of Mrs. Floyd Payne, honoring their birthdays. She and Mr. Payseur stopped by there on their way some- where else, and were met by a group singing, "Happy Birthday." A lovely cake was lit with candles, and in- scribed, "Happy Birthday, Geneva and Carolyn." After the pair opened many nice gifts, a light supper was served, followed by home-made ice- cream and cake. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Parton, Mr. and Mrs. Esaiiah Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Yelton, Douglas Yelton, and Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Payseur.

Legion Auxiliary Met Monday Night

The American Legion auxiliary met Monday night with Mrs. J. S. Ware. Mrs. Lloyd Phifer was co-hos- tess. Twenty-three members were pres- ent. During the business the follow- ing officers were elected: president, Mrs. C. L. Jolly; vice president, Mrs. El. E. Tate; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Fred McDaniel, Jr.; chaplain, Mrs. Gordon Beatty; historian, Mrs. Ben H. Goforth; custodian, Mrs. P. G. Hatterree. Mrs. W. L. Logan reported home made candy had been sent the boys at Oteen. Plans were made for the copy sale. Ice cream topped with strawber- ries and cake was served by the hos- tesses.

Mrs. Kiser Gives Series Of Parties

Bridge was played progressively at four tables Wednesday night when Mrs. Arnold Kiser entertained at her attractive home on East King street. Dainty centerpieces of pansies in antique bowls were used on each table. Frozen fruit salad, sandwiches, cheese biscuits and tea was served. After several progressions of bridge had been enjoyed the hostess a- ward prizes to Mrs. B. S. Neill and Mrs. Claud Hambricht who had scored highest and second highest. Mrs. T. A. Kay, house guest of Mrs. W. R. Craig, was presented an honor gift. Numerous brilliant arrangements of roses, sweet peas and larkspur were used about the rooms as decora- tions.

On Thursday afternoon amid a set- ting of mixed garden flowers four tables were placed for bridge. After four progressions the hostess served a frozen salad course with other party accessories. The players added and compared scores and the prizes went to Mrs. Dan Finger, high, Mrs. Hal Plonk, second high.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Kiser were hosts to a number of friends. Tables were appointed for refresh- ments when the guests arrived and a delicious frozen salad course with party dainties was served. Antique bowls of miniature flowers were used on each table.

At the close of an evening of bridge when scores were tallied high a- ward went to Mrs. Timberlake for ladies and J. A. Neisler carried off high for men.

Mrs. J. W. Timberlake house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Neisler, was remembered with an honor gift. An effective arrangement of vari- ous colored flowers were noticed in the living and dining room.

Guest Honored By Mrs. H. L. Campbell

Honoring her house guest Miss Margie Campbell, Mrs. H. L. Camp- bell delightfully entertained at two tables of Rook at her home Saturday night. Guests present included Miss Annie Roberts, Mesdames J. H. Ar- thur, B. F. Beam, Marriott Phifer, Paul McGinnis, Rowell Lane and B. A. Murray.

Red roses and magnolia buds were effectively used as decorations. Mrs. Rowell Lane assisted the hostess in serving a sweet course with punch. Arrangements of small flowers in pastel shades in silver cups were on each table.

After four progressions when scores were added it was revealed Mrs. Paul McGinnis had won high score prize and Mrs. Rowell Lane low score prize. The hostess presented the honor guest an attractive gift.

Mrs. J. M. Cooper Fetes Duplicate Club

Invited to play with members of the Duplicate Bridge club Monday were Mrs. Crosland of Bennettsville, guest of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Hen- dricks and Mrs. Amos Dean.

Bowls of sweet peas, roses and larkspur were used about the party rooms.

After scores were tallied Mrs. George Houser and Mrs. Tolly Shur- ford received high score prizes.

When cards were laid aside the hostess served an attractive salad course.

May Party Given By Brownie Scouts

Highlighting the social activities for the young girls last week was the May Party given by Brownie Scout Troop No. 14 of the Lutheran church Wednesday afternoon on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page.

Girl Scouts, their leaders, council members and the Area field Worker Miss Fannie Funderburke of Gastonia, Miss Flo Stabler, County Girl Scout worker of Shelby and the par- ents of the Brownies were invited guests.

The party depicted an Old English Fair, pins were given each guest on arrival.

Booths were placed around the lawn in one was Apple Robbin, Mrs. Coman Falls and Mrs. David Ham- rick were in charge. Fortune Tellers booth created quite a bit of interest with Mrs. Ray Plonk, Lloyd Houser and Miss Helen Ramsey as fortune tellers. Kiss Booth, candy kisses were given by Mrs. W. H. Stender and Ed Dixon, in Ye Ole Tavern. Mrs. J. M. Cooper and Mrs. W. R. Craig served cookies and punch.

After the group had visited the booths and looked over some hand work of the Brownies we were invited to the lower part of the lawn where the Queen, Linda Biser, was crowned by her mother, Mrs. M. H. Biser. She and her attendants then ascended the throne.

Entertainment for the court was given by other members of the Brownie Troop as follows, May Pole Dance. One act play, "The Brown- ies" was given on a wagon as the plays were given in the day, Pick- ing Up Paw Paws—dance, Ballet Duet—April Showers—Story— Lion's Hunt—Swinging In A Swing—Story—Red Caps—Brownie Scout Color ceremony.

The Brownie Scout Troop wish to express publicly their appreciation to their parents who made the party possible.
