MY Fellowship Honors Seniors

"Youth's Response to Service" was the title of a worship program presented Sunday morning in the youth chapel, honoring members of the group who are to graduate this year: Jack Matthews, Hunter Warlick, Pat Jolly, Jackie Wilson, and Margie Dickey. Bobby Goforth served as program leader, and gave the call to worship and introduction. Barbara Gault read the scripture, about youth, and the group sang "O Jesus I Have Promised." Two poems, "Every Youth," and "Come Clean" were read by Pat Jolly, after which Bobby Goforth explained the appeal of the hymn, "God Who Touches Earth With Beauty," to youth. This hymn was beautifully sung as a solo by Dorothy Smith, accompanied by Barbara Grantham. Using as a worship center a copy of the painting, "Come Unto Me," drawn on a large blackboard, an inspiring talk was given about Christ's call to youth by I. Ben Goforth, guest speaker. Barbara Gault played the piano while the group sang "Just As I Am." During the class period Bill Allen, newly-elected president of the Senior M. Y. F. presented the honored Seniors with a gift from the group, subscriptions to "Power," a devotional magazine written by youth for youth.

"The Talents" is the topic for next Sunday morning's program in the chapel, and Ann Mayes is to serve as chairman. Special music will be provided by Pat Jolly, and Jack Crouch is to give the scripture reading about the talents. A copy of the painting, "The Talents," will be drawn on the board by Jack Matthews, who will give the interpretation of the picture. All Seniors and intermediates of the MYF are urged to attend.

"Let's Grow Up" is topic for discussion at the evening meetings of the Senior MYF in June, and Jo Ann Wright is chairman of the program committee. Next Sunday evening the program will be on "This Body of Mine."

Over 170 were present at the Gastonia Youth Sub-District meeting in Central church Thursday, May 26, 23 of this being from Central church.

Miss Melba Watterson Bride-Elect, Feted

Miss Melba Watterson, bride-elect of the month, was paid a charming compliment last Friday night when Mrs. Menzell Phifer and Mrs. W. F. Stone, Jr., entertained in her honor at the home of Mrs. F. C. Ware.

The Ware home was thrown en-suite and lovely arrangements of sweet peas, larkspur and pansies were used as decorations.

The honoree was presented a corsage of red rosebuds on her arrival. Bridal games and contests were enjoyed.

The bridal colors of green and white were carried out in the refreshments, a miniature bride was on each plate as a favor.

Climax of the evening was showing the honoree with a miscellaneous assortment of gifts.

H. D. Ward's Fete Joseph Graham

Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Ward entertained at a dinner party Friday night complimenting Mr. Joseph Graham, recently appointed ninth division highway commissioner who spoke at a public rally at Beth-Ware at 8 o'clock.

Bowls of sweet peas were used throughout the home. A green cloth was used on the dining table; a low arrangement of sweet peas graced the center of the table. A delicious four-course dinner was enjoyed by the following: J. E. Patterson, Edwin Moore, W. L. Ware, Miles Hambricht, R. R. Yarboro, M. L. Harmon and Hal Ward.

Twin Table Bridge With Mrs. Mauney

Mrs. Paul Mauney delightfully entertained the members of the Twin Table bridge club at her home Monday night.

Early summer flowers were used as decorations. The tables were appointed for refreshments on the guests arrival. The hostesses assisted by Miss Pauline Mauney and Miss Patty Harris served ice cream, homemade cake and coffee.

When covers were removed four progressions of bridge ensued. When tables were compared Mrs. Claud Hambricht and Mrs. O. W. Myers were presented prizes.

Jack and Jill Pupils Will Present Play

The pupils of the Jack and Jill Kindergarten will present their closing exercises, "A Day at Kindergarten," at the Womens Club on Wednesday afternoon, June 8, at 4:00 o'clock.

Joyce Plonk Honored On 6th Birthday

Mrs. Hal Plonk entertained the pupils of the Jack and Jill Kindergarten and a few invited friends at the Kindergarten Wednesday morning, May 25. The party was given in honor of her daughter, Joyce, who was celebrating her sixth birthday anniversary.

After the children enjoyed an hour of games and story-telling Mrs. Plonk brought in the beautifully decorated birthday cake holding six lighted candles. The children sang "Happy Birthday" to Joyce after which she made a wish and blew out her candles.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. W. B. Thomson and Mrs. Clay Poston brought in pretty bright colored plates of ice cream, cupcakes, lemonade and suckers. Joyce gave her little friends as favors, balloons with whistles.

Pictures were made of the happy group around the birthday cake and the many beautiful gifts.

Couples Club With The G. H. Mauneys

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney were at home Friday night when their guests included the member of the Couples Bridge Club and two invited guests, Mr. and Mrs. Haywood E. Lynch.

Lovely bowls of roses, gardenias, and magnolias were used to provide a pretty setting. Tables were appointed for refreshments and a sweet course and coffee was served.

After several progressions score prizes were presented Mrs. L. E. Abbott and C. F. Thomasson, Jr.

Bid And By Club With J. B. Simpsons

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr. were invited to play with members of the Bid and By club Saturday night when they met with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson.

Bowls of gaily mixed garden flowers were used in the living room where two tables were arranged for bridge.

After four progressions scores were compiled and high awards left with Mrs. George Houser and L. E. Abbott.

Strawberry short cake with whipper cream and coffee was served.

Mrs. F. R. Summers Entertains At Bridge

Two tables of bridge were in play last Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. F. R. Summers entertained her bridge club and one invited guest, Mrs. M. H. Biser.

Attractive arrangements of spring flowers were used in the party rooms. Assorted sandwiches, cookies and iced cakes were served before the progressions.
