Davidson High School

On Friday, June 3, 1949, at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium, the members of the high school will present a play "Everybody's Crazy Now," a comedy in three acts. It sparkles with clever lines. It ricks with hilarious situations. It grips with its plot interest.

The story concerns a girl, who returning from school, finds her widowed mother, having exhausted her resources in order that June may complete her education, has decided to take in boarders.

Don't miss the play. If you don't get your money's worth of laughs and interesting situations—

If Grey Beecher doesn't make every girl's blood pressure rise above normal—

If you don't chuckle at the awkward love-making of Stan Barbour—

If June doesn't capture the heart of every man—

If Hetty doesn't frighten each person—

If Lee Tyson doesn't stop the show by the time Hetty gets her hands on him—

The — well — we suggest that you call a Doctor and call him quickly. The characters are:

June Austin—Marie Perry.
Greg Beecher—Clayton Adams.
Ada Austin—Christine Haywood.
Basall Lindsay—Marshall Leach.
Non York—Peggy Mitchem.
Stan Barbour—Anglee Perry.
Hetty Meicalf—Janie Crosby.
Hiram Dill—Carl Bennix.
Kynthia Arndt—Bernice Pressley.
Lee Tyson—Eddie Kennedy.

Miss M. L. Pope, senior class advisor, is the director of this play. She is inviting all who enjoy good plays to be present and bring along your friends.

Mrs. Winston and Miss Jackson wish to extend a special "Thank You" to all parents and friends who cooperated wholeheartedly in helping the Operetta "Bamboo Princess" to be a success. We are more than grateful to you for all that you did, and we do hope that you enjoyed the Operetta.
