Dewey Caldwell's To Note 25th Anniversary

The following invitations have been issued: Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Caldwell, request the honor of your presence at the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Saturday, the eighteenth of June...

Miss Peggy Smith Bride-Elect Honored

Seasonal flowers in effective profusion adorned the party rooms in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davis Friday night when Misses Maxine Hord, Betty Hayes and Betty Knox Davis entertained, honoring Miss Peggy Smith, bride-elect.

After the evenings entertainment period, the hostesses served an ice course carrying out the bridal colors of green and white. The hostesses presented the honoree crystal in her chosen pattern.

Hi-Lo Bridge Club With Dr. And Mrs. D. F. Hord

Amid a setting of roses and pansies two tables were appointed for refreshments on guests arrival last Friday night when Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Hord entertained the Hi-Lo bridge club and two invited guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Chesire.

A dessert course was served on the arrival of the guests. Bridge was played progressively. When scores were added and compared high for ladies went to Mrs. John Chesire with Glee E. Bridges carrying off high for men.

MRS. BRUCE W. BOYLES

Boyles-Watterson Wedding Saturday

At the home of Rev. C. C. Crowe, pastor of the Oak Grove Baptist church, Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock, Miss Melba Watterson and Bruce W. Boyles, both of Kings Mountain were united in marriage. Rev. Crowe officiated using the double ring ceremony. Snadragons and potted plants decorated the room in which the vows were spoken.

the ceremony. Mrs. Boyles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watterson of Kings Mountain. She is a graduate of Beth-Ware high school and Evans Business-school of Gastonia. She now holds a position with the First National Bank. The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. Boyles. He attended Beth-Ware high school and served three years in the armed service. He is employed with the Good Will Press of Gastonia.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon in Western North Carolina. Upon their return they will make their home on Fairview street, Kings Mountain.
