MYF Give Program On "The Healer"

Sunday morning the Methodist Fellowship, Central Methodist church, met for a worship program, "The Talents," led by Ann Mayes. The scripture reading was given by Jack Crouch, and a solo, "Take My Life and Let It Be," was sung by Pat Jolly, accompanied by Jean Davis at the piano. Jack Matthews gave the interpretation of the picture, "The Talents," which had been drawn on the blackboard by him, and served as a worship center. Ann Mayes read two poems, "If You Will," and "The Cross at the Crossways." The chapel was beautifully decorated with larkspur and other flowers.

During the business session, the Seniors filled out questionnaires, on which they decided to have a "Youth Activity Week" this summer, to meet in their homes for evening meetings and Workshops during the summer, and not to attend Camp Asheltonia, as so few could go at the time appointed.

Sunday evening, twenty were present for an outdoor program conducted by Miss Joann Wright at the home of Barbara Grantham and Dorothy Smith. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Grantham served the group a delicious hamburger supper, cooked in their lovely back yard, which was followed by home-made ice cream.

Next Sunday morning Dosis Jolly will serve as program leader for a program on "The Healer" Patricia Prince is to make the drawing for the worship center. Following this missionary program, Seniors are to make personal pledges to the MY Fund, which is their contribution to the missionary work of the church. Sunday evening the Senior MYF is to meet at the home of Ann Mayes, where Ramona Allen will conduct a program on "A Growing Mind." Mrs. G. F. Lattimore's Circle No. 2 will serve them a light supper there at 6:30 p. m.

Ace Of Clubs Feted At A Dinner Bridge

Mrs. J. M. Cooper entertained at a dinner bridge in her home on Piedmont Avenue Friday evening, complimenting the members of the Ace of Clubs, their husbands, and a few invited guests. Artistic arrangements of mixed summer flowers made a lovely setting for the affair.

When the guests arrived they found their places at tables centered with miniature vases of pansies. A delicious three course dinner was served.

At the conclusion of the bridge game, Mrs. Sam Davis was named high scorer for the ladies, with David White winning high for the men. Low score prizes went to Mrs. W. L. Mauney and Hugh Ormand.

Mr. and Mrs. David White of Shelby were out of town guests.

Miss Gillespie Compliments Guests

Complimenting her house guests, Miss Janet Zimmer, of Port Washington, N. Y., and Miss Betty Holbrook of Lowell, Miss Emelyn Gillespie delightfully entertained at three tables of bridge at her home Thursday night.

Four progressions of bridge ensued, with Miss Avis Warlick, winning high score, Miss Peggy Arthur, low. Gifts were presented the honoree's Miss Zimmer and Miss Holbrook. Miss Jean Webb and Miss Beulah Rhea, bride-elects, were also remembered with gifts.

At the conclusion of the game an ice course with a fruit drink was served.

The home was beautifully arranged with cut summer flowers.

Entre-Nous Meets With Mrs. J. H. Arthur

Members of the Entre-Nous Bridge club held a pleasant meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Arthur as hostess at her home on West King street.

The rooms were bright with bowls of sweet peas and white glads. When guests assembled, they found their places at attractively appointed tables and the hostess served chocolate eclairs, nuts and punch.

When scores were tallied at the conclusion of the progressions, high score award went to Mrs. O. O. Jackson, low score award to Mrs. B. A. Murray.

Mrs. S. M. Brown was invited to play with the club members.
