Miss Gladden Reveals Her Wedding Plans

Plans for the wedding of Miss Janie Ozeile Gladden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Gladden of this city, and Robert Moffard Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ernest Dixon also of Kings Mountain have been completed and are being announced today.

The ceremony will be solemnized Sunday at twelve o'clock noon, June 12, in the Second Baptist church. Rev. B. F. Austin, pastor of the bride, will officiate, using the double ring ceremony.

The wedding music will be presented by Miss Bonnie Lee McIntosh, pianist, and Furman Eugene Gladden, vocalist, both cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Marlon C. Falls, Jr., sister of the bride and George Fortenbury, of Grover, brother-in-law of the groom will be the only attendants.

The bride and groom will enter the church together.

No invitations are being issued, but all friends of the couple are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Peggy Smith Honored At Shower

Mrs. Paul McGinnis was hostess at a miscellaneous shower at her home Monday night as a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Peggy Smith, popular bride-elect of the week.

Larkspur, daisies, and other summer flowers were used for decoration in the McGinnis home.

Hearts was played with Mrs. Ray Smith winning high, and Miss Betty Knox Davis, low.

At refreshment time block ice cream, individual cakes and fruit punch was served, carrying out the bridal colors of green and white.

Miss Smith received many lovely gifts.

Pre-Nuptial Party Fetes Miss Smith

Highlighting the pre-nuptial social activities honoring Miss Peggy Smith, bride-elect of the week, was a kitchen shower given Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. D. J. Littlejohn with Mrs. James E. Littlejohn and Mrs. C. D. Ware as joint hostesses.

The lower floor of the Littlejohn home was thrown en-suite and lavishly decorated. Snapdragons predominated in the living room with mixed summer flowers being used in the other rooms. On her arrival Miss Smith was given a corsage of rose buds.

Five tables were placed for Hearts. When scores were counted, Miss Joyce Foster won high and Mrs. J. K. Willis received the consolation prize.

A very tempting ice course and drink was served by the hostesses.

The climax of the evening was reached when Miss Phyllis Ware entered pulling a red wagon loaded with kitchen gifts for the honoree, from the hostesses and guests present.

Senior Woman's Club To Meet June, 17th

The Senior Woman's club will meet next Friday night June 17, at 8 o'clock in the lounge of the club house.

District president, Mrs. William Edwards of Rutherfordton, will be guest speaker and install the newly elected officers.

Charter members of the club are to be honored, Mrs. Mauney reports a special program is being prepared, so come, or you will miss a very special treat.

Co-chairmen of the hostess committee are, Mrs. Y. F. Throneburg and Mrs. S. M. Brown.

Mrs. David Hamrick Hostess To Circle No. 3

The home of Mrs. David Hamrick was beautifully decorated with arrangements of roses, snapdragons, pansies, ivy, and potted plants for the meeting Tuesday night of Circle No. 3, Central Methodist church. Seventeen were present, including three visitors, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, Mrs. J. H. Brendall, Jr., Mrs. C. A. Goforth, Sr. and one new member, Mrs. R. F. Daugherty.

Mrs. Bun Goforth conducted the devotionals, "Beginners" and the group sang two hymns, accompanied by Mrs. Otto Hehn at the piano.

During the business session, the following officers were elected for this new circle, to serve for the coming year: Leader, Mrs. Bun Goforth; Co-leader, Mrs. David Hamrick; Secretary, Mrs. John Campbell; Treasurer, Miss Grace Davis. The group elected also the following chairmen: Program, Miss Martha Walker; Flowers, Mrs. Clay Poston and Mrs. Linwood Parton; Spiritual Life, Mrs. Otto Hehn; Publicity, Mrs. Baxter Payseur; Telephone, Miss Tela Clark and Mrs. Clarence Peele, and Cards, Mrs. Mildred Wright. New pledges were made.

Delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream, coconut cake, and iced tea, was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Charles A. Goforth, Sr., invited this circle to meet in her backyard for a covered dish supper next month. The time is set for 7 o'clock for this supper. This circle is to meet the first Tuesday of each month during the coming year.

Local Members Attend Log Rolling

The Rutherfordton and Cleveland county Boosters Club of the Woodmen of the World will meet with the Shelby camp Thursday night June 9 at 7:30 p. m. in the W. O. W. Hall.

Several members attended the Log Rolling Convention held in Lenoir, May 21. They report a good meeting. Local camps of the Rutherfordton and Cleveland county district report increase in members and insurance protection to the families.

ATTRACTIVE BRIDE-ELECT—Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. May, of Greenville, North Carolina, announce the engagement of their daughter, Audrey Dorris, to Mr. William Hoke Page, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page of Lincolnton. The wedding will take place in mid-summer.

Pauline Club Met Tuesday Night

The members of the Pauline community club met in the club house for their regular meeting Tuesday night.

The meeting was opened by the group singing, "In the Sweet By and By." Mrs. Daisy Barrett gave the scripture lesson, after which Mrs. Cooke led in prayer.

Routine business matters were disposed of, and then, the group enjoyed a social hour of entertainment and companionship.

Mrs. Orville Morris, Mrs. Wilma Page and Mrs. Daisy Barrett, were hostesses for the evening and served hamburgers, candy and iced cokes.

After the social hour Mrs. Earl Ledford dismissed the group with prayer.

Fresh, refrigerated orange juice, prepared and packaged by a new process, is now being shipped commercially from citrus producing areas to distant markets without loss of flavor or other qualities.
