Pupils Of 4th Grade Enjoy Birthday Party

Miss Lois Watson entertained her fourth grade at Central school Wednesday afternoon at a birthday party. The table was centered with a pink cake and lighted candles. The table cloth and napkins were pink and white with the birthday design. Orange cool-ade was also served. The children enjoyed games and story telling.

Those enjoying the hospitality were Luther Barnes, Gerald Bray, Charles Bridges, Dean Bridges, Harold Connor, J. A. Crook, Royce Davis, Lawrence Eiters, Franklin Falls, Royce Gault, Jr., Curtis George, Pete Gunnells, Franklin Hinson, Harold Ford, James A. Meredith, David Pinson, Roger Pleimmons, Johnny Thomason, Steve Wells, Don Wright, Sybil Blanton, Jane Croker, Pratt Falls, Sandra Fleming, Phyllis Green, Becky Harris, Joyce Hope, Sally Hovis, Edna Martin, Helen Fay Morrison, Rebecca Oates, Jeanne Plonk, Barbara Smith, Josephine Smith, Myrtle Whetstone, Shirley Whitaker, Shirley Wright, Betty Jean Lingerfelt, and Glenda Proctor.

G. E. Bridges Entertain At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bridges were hosts at a dinner party Saturday night complimenting Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Darr, of Sparta, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stallings.

Pansies in soft shades were used to decorate the rooms. Southern fried chicken, french fried potatoes, vegetable salad and devils food cake and sided over the routine business. During the social hour light refreshments were served by the hostess. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Carol Barnes and Miss Annie Laurie Summitt who are leaving soon to make their home in Charlotte.

ice tea was enjoyed by the guests. Later in the evening bridge was played with high score award going to Mrs. Darr.

Home Arts Club Meets With Mrs. P. D. Herndon

Members of the Home Arts Club and two invited guests, Mrs. E. A. Harrill and Mrs. J. B. Simpson, were entertained Tuesday night by Mrs. P. D. Herndon.

Floral arrangements of sweet-peas, double larkspur and other mixed flowers were used as decorations. During the social half hour at the beginning of the meeting the hostess assisted by Mrs. Simpson served strawberry ice cream pie, cakes and a fruit drink.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Fred Plonk presided.

Mrs. Phillip Padgett had arranged a very interesting program on her old home town, Galveston, Texas. The city is divided into three sections: the wharf, where most of the commercial life is centered; the town and residential — where Galvestonians live their social lives; and the beach front—the mecca of tourists.

Mrs. W. L. Fressley read an article on "Know Your Oysters," featuring the commercial life.

Mrs. B. D. Ratterree gave an article on "The New Shamrock Hotel," the most elaborate and up to date hotel in the country.
