Methodist Bible School Plans Set

The Vacation Church School of Central Methodist church, which is to be held June 16-30 from 9 to 11:30 a. m. has made plans for a large enrollment.

The special activities in the several classes will be built around the themes of the following text books: "The World About Us," for Beginners.

"Working with God in His World," for Primaries.

"Friends at Work," for Juniors.

"Becoming a Person," for Intermediate girls.

"With Justice for All," for Intermediate boys.

One of the hand-work activities will include soap and wood carving. Another is that of making a stained glass picture on parchment paper for Worship Center. There will be numerous outdoor activities and tentative plans are made for an overnight retreat for one group at Lake Montonia.

Mrs. Emma McIntosh will direct music periods for all classes.

Any Methodist children who need transportation contact Mrs. Charles A. Burtelworth, Telephone 305-J.

Junior Woman's Club Install New Officers

The Junior Woman's Club held their regular monthly meeting Monday night in the Club lounge.

Spinners To Play Here Friday At 4:30

Craftspun baseball team of the Gaston Textile league is scheduled to meet Rayfield-Stewart of Gastonia here in City Stadium Friday at 4:30 p. m.

The game was originally scheduled for Saturday afternoon but was changed by Business Manager Harold Phillips to avoid conflict with the Kings Mountain-Charlotte Juniors game here Saturday night.

Bud Ross, Craftspun righthander, is due to get the hit call. Ross has a 2-3 record for the season.

The Kings Mountain semi-pro-nine scored 6 runs in the top of the 9th Tuesday in Stanley to defeat that entry 11-10 in a thriller. Willis King had a double and a single in two trips.

Craftspun holds a 4-6 record going into Friday's game, ranking among the league's top four teams.

Brownie Scout Troop No. 14 went on a supper hike last Thursday night to some woods on Mr. W. K. Mauney, Jr.'s property. First we gathered wood and then built a fire. We learned how to fix angel on horseback and banana boats. We played games and sang songs and then we walked home.

The Allsweet Plan
Save your "Allsweet Oleomargarine" cartons for the Girl Scouts. Swift and Company will give the girls 5¢ for each carton turned in at their plant. The funds raised will be used for a badly needed troop house at Camp Rotary. Please begin now to save your cartons, and when you have a number on hand call your nearest Girl Scout and she will gladly come for them.

Lions Club Fetes Ladies

A crowd of 175 persons were present at the high school cafeteria Tuesday night for the eleventh annual Ladies Night banquet of the Kings Mountain Lions club.

The program featured a song concert by the Sisk Quartet and now-you-see-it-now-you-don't presentation by A. E. Thompson, self-styled amateur magician, of Charlotte.

Amateur or not, Mr. Thompson's repertoire of tricks baffled his audience.

President W. B. Logan, in his remarks, reviewed activities of the club for the past year which included payment of a month's salary to the school Bible teacher, aid to needy families at Christmas, aid to a blind person in establishing a small business, purchase of 18 pairs of glasses, and $75 donations to both the infantile paralysis fund and the X-ray fund.

Sam Stallings welcomed the ladies in humorous manner and the audience heard a reciprocal response from Mrs. W. B. Thomson. Mrs. Thomson gave a description of "man" which proved accurate in fine detail. Husbands, she declared, were divided in three classes, "prizes, surprises and consolation
