Vows Spoken Friday

CHARLOTTE. — Miss Vera Thornburg of Kings Mountain and Charlotte, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thornburg of Kings Mountain, became the bride of Curtis P. Watts, son of Mrs. Baxter A. Watts and the late Mr. Watts of Charlotte, in a ceremony Friday night at Green Memorial Baptist church parsonage. Rev. David E. Bobbitt officiated using the double ring ceremony. Only members of the two families and a few close friends attended the wedding.

The vows were spoken in the living room before the mantle which was banked with summer flowers. The couple entered together, the bride wearing a Copenhagen blue two-piece suit of silk shantung, a white Milan straw hat, and white accessories. She also wore a shoulder bouquet of American Beauty roses.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Miami, Fla. For traveling the bride wore a suit of toast silk faille with brown and white accessories. They will return to Charlotte where they will move into their new home on Wesley avenue.

Mrs. Watts is employed by Hudson Hosiery company, and Mr. Watts is associated with the Thomas Electric company.

The bride and groom entered together. The bride was pretty in a suit of powder blue gabardine, using white accessories and a shoulder corsage of red rosebuds.

Mrs. Thornburg is a graduate of the Central High school and is employed at the Mauney Hosiery Mill. Mr. Thornburg is a graduate of the Beth-Ware school and is employed with the Burlington Mills.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Thornburg left for a wedding trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina and other points of interest.

On their return they will make their home in an apartment with the grooms mother on the Waco road. Only members of the two immediate families and close friends were present for the ceremony.
