MRS. DAVID MOORE NEILL

Miss Jean Cannon Webb Weds David Moore Neill Saturday Night

A wedding of much interest to Carolina society and one of rare beauty and charm was that of Miss Jean Cannon Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Halbert Webb to David Moore Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buren Shuford Neill which was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church Saturday night at eight o'clock.

Rev. P. D. Patrick, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an altar arrangement of palms, woodwardia fern, wrought iron candelabras holding cathedral tapers interspersed with wrought iron floor baskets of white gladioli, tuberose, asters and baby's breath. The special pews were marked with bouquets of white satin ribbon and asters.

Wedding Music

Prior to and during the ceremony, Mrs. Virginia Parsons Rosenthal, organist; Miss Patty Harris of Americus, Ga., soprano, and Billie Gene Amos, baritone, rendered a program of nuptial music. Before the ceremony Mrs. Rosenthal played "Always," by Berlin, "Ave Maria," by Schubert Theme from "Piano Concerto No. 1," by Trchiakowsky, "Clair de Lune," by Debussy, "Liebestraum" by Liszt, Miss Harris sang "Through The Years" by Youmans, and Mr. Amos sang "Because" by DeHaredot. For the processional the wedding march from "Tannhauser" was played for the bridesmaids and the wedding march from "Lohengrin" for the bride. "To a Wild Rose" was softly played during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the recessional.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of Chantilly lace and French marquise over bridal satin. The fitted bodice was of Chantilly lace fashioned with a round yoke of marquise outlined with hand made rose petals of self-material and buttoned down the back with tiny satin covered buttons, the hip length bodice was joined to the skirt in a graceful outline and edged with rose petals to match the yoke. The bouffant marquisette skirt over net over satin, fell softly over the hips with an appliqued design and handmade rose petals matching the yoke ending in a full cathedral train. Her long gauntlets of Chantilly lace ended with calla lily points over the hands.

Her two tiered Chapel length veil of imported French illusion was worn with a lace halo edged with rose petals matching those of her gown and centered with rings of seed pearls. She carried a white satin Bible topped with two white orchids entwined with maline and showered with maline and stephanotis. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Wedding Attendants

the center was a crystal bowl holding white gladioli, asters, pom-pom chrysanthemums, phlox, baby's breath and fern. On either side were reposing on oval reflectors were roses of tube roses, fern, and maline, crystal candelabras holding white tapers. Wide satin ribbons were placed across the table just above the punch bowls; on these were silver platters of bridal cakes iced in white decorated with white rose buds and green leaves. Composites of mixed nuts and a large crystal punch bowl was on each end of the table from which punch was served by Mrs. C. D. Blanton, Mrs. G. E. Still, Mrs. Hugh Ormand, and Mrs. H. S. Blackmer. Garlands of ivy were draped over the doors and windows, Magnolia leaves bordered the floor. Floor baskets of pink and white crepe myrtle were used effectively around the room. An oblong basket of pink crepe myrtle was on the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Wilson of Bartow, Fla., presided over the register. On the desk by the register was a nosegay of sweet heart roses, showered with white satin ribbon, an antique candelabra with white tapers completed the arrangement.
