Miss Rhea Reveals Her Wedding Plans

Plans have been completed and are announced this week for the wedding of Miss Beulah Elizabeth Rhea, youngest daughter of Mrs. James Monroe Rhea and the late Mr. Rhea, and Charles Jerome Spivey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Jerome Spivey. The wedding will take place Saturday evening August 27, at 5:30 p. m. in the First Baptist church. Rev. L. C. Pinnix, pastor of the young couple, will officiate using the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music will be presented by Mrs. Garrison Goforth, organist, and Billie Gerie Amos, baritone, soloist.

The bride will be given in marriage by her uncle, J. E. Mauney. The groom will have his father, Mr. W. J. Spivey as his best man.

Miss Jane Elliott of Rutherfordton, roommate of the bride-elect at Wake Forest college will be maid of honor.

Mrs. Jack Beamon of Havelock, N. C., sister of the bride-elect, will be matron of honor. Bridesmaids will include Miss Jean McClain, Miss Betty Lynch, Miss Mary Beth Ford and Miss Shirley Spivey, sister of the groom.

Ushers will be Eddie Smith, Eddie Campbell, Jack A. Greene, of Charlotte, and Joe P. Gamble of Monroe.

Miss Rhea has been shown numerous pre-nuptial courtesies since announcement of her engagement and additional parties are planned in her honor.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. G. A. Bridges and Mrs. J. C. Bridges are entertaining at bridge, Thursday night Mrs. David Neill will entertain at bridge, Friday Miss Peggy Arthur and Mrs. A. A. Lackey of Fallston are giving a bridge lunch-en at the home of Miss Arthur. Tuesday night Miss Louann Herndon and Frances Payne are entertaining at bridge.

Friday at 1 o'clock Miss Jean McClain and Mrs. Garrison Goforth, are entertaining at a bride's maid luncheon at the home of the former.

The rehearsal will be at 7:30. At 9 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mauney will fetter the attendants, out of town guests and relatives at a cake cutting at their home.

Mrs. W. O. Ruddock Hostess At Bridge

A lovely party was given Monday night at the Weman's Club when Mrs. William O. Ruddock entertained at bridge honoring Miss Peggy Morrow of Gastonia, bride-elect of the week. The lounge of the club was decorated with mixed flowers.

Before the progressions of bridge, Mrs. Ruddock, assisted by Misses Kitty Falls and Jean Cash, served a delectable course.

At the end of the progressions, Miss Virginia Summers won high score prize, Miss Marilyn Biggers won low prize, and Mrs. B. C. Morrow won the floating prize. At this time, the hostess remembered Miss Morrow with a gift of china in her selected pattern. Mrs. David Neill, a recent bride, and Miss Beulah Rhea, bride-elect of the season, were also remembered with gifts.

Among the out of town guests present were Mrs. L. A. Morrow, mother of the honoree, Mrs. B. C. Morrow, Mrs. Richard Groves, Mrs. Plato Pearson, Misses Winnie Jordan, Elizabeth Cunningham, and Mary Bryant, all of Gastonia, and Misses Marilyn Biggers and Mary Virginia Sommers of Charlotte.
